POPE JOHN PAUL II, Ascended: Finally, of this small book, the Five Essential Marks of Catholic Schools is perhaps how I had given them.

The only piece of knowledge perhaps that I would add is an emphasis I had given earlier and then again now is on the developing of the identity of "Who is the Catholic school student?"

Thus the attendance at mass, and the giving of the Mother Mary rosary is a must. This is what distinguishes a Catholic student from any another Christian school. And now in 2016 with the re-introduction of the Gregorian chants in another form as chanting at mass, it will help the children to be able to use the holy sounds to create their life— free of the TV bombardment of unholy images, and the demonic control from the mores from movies, internet and advertising that they are barraged with. But they have a means through the holy Church to find a way to combat wrong mores and also to become with power as leaders of spiritual wisdom.
