Necromancy

MOTHER MARY: We will have the teaching on necromancy.

Q: How do you avoid necromancy?

COMMENTARY: The way is through only abiding by your language. You do not allow any other language where you are not safe and sound.

Bill Gates: Of the situation where I was at the handshake spoken to as: "Bill Gates, you are "the" Czar," I knew that he had an agenda, so why would I allow him to go any further?

Nancy of Oregon: In this case, the language is "I cannot be bribed. Nope."

ANDREA SELESTOW: They shake your hand you say, "Keep your hands to yourself."

NATHAN the Judge: In my case with Hitler, it was a similarity to it. "You are the American judge--ooooh-lala."

STEVEN ECKL: It does require that you have a self-assurance. And that comes by taking the tests on "the devil comes to taunt me and cannot find anything."

Nancy of Oregon: You speak the language that you know. Hummm, here is a guy who wants to necromance me, I will talk about the weather. I will act like “no-speak- English.” It is arrogance if you think you need to be a know-it-all. So what you do is take your medicine, and you need to say trite things, right. “Hey you chow down yet? Really, I saw a funny thing on the street corner, a man dressed as Donald Duck giving out samples.” You are changing the subject, you are in command.

ANDREA SELESTOW: Sometimes you need anger. And you would not be frozen. What is speaking your language then? It is the language of the Ten Commandments. So you see how you cannot be corrupted because the fornicator is not in their vocabulary. So you automatically go into robotic form and routine, and say, “Move it along. You fornicators? No loitering, no coming back, don’t come back again! You hear? Don’t come back again.” You slam the door.

Mandarin: You practice all of these forms, all of these roles, all of these Ten Commandment break-ins and what to say back.

EMPEROR LeAMTHE: Even with necromancers around, you still have free will. Before, the necromancers were those who thumped the Satanic bible to get attention, or practice the ouija board, but today, they wear the 3-piece suits.

EMPEROR LeAMTHE: In this, what do you see or sense?

What I asked the typist was, what was it she saw? Her immediate reply was “the light.”

Mandarin: You see the shadows, you notice the slimy things people say, shake your hand and say, “You are the Czar”. You see through it.

MOTHER MARY: If their eyes do not shine with Light you immediate suspect this is an evil situation.

PROPAGANDA

MOTHER MARY: Here we will briefly group these photos.

In this first group, I would have you see the women as you are not able to see the contempt in their eyes.

MOTHER MARY: Contempt is a word you need to have in your vocabulary for example. "Contempt." "Contemptuous."

GOD HELIOS: Just imagine them calling you American Chauvinist Pig.

MOTHER MARY: You also look to see what is their message as in the flags here. To your right is the Red China flag. To your left is the left-handed path, the United States flag.

GOD HELIOS: This is necromancy.

ANDREA SELESTOW: You are easily fooled by her good looks, are you not? And the padded bras and tinted hair. You need to be able to see through the eye makeup, the lipstick, the clothes. And see the contempt, or what is the critical nature directed at you that is to shame you. Make you feel guilty. Which was how Judge Nathan let Hitler go.

MOTHER MARY: This next group are the men.

Mandarin: Here it is saying, "We'll see. We'll see."

SAINT DIANE: The reasoning.

Mandarin: It is not recognizing the balance of forces.

ANDREA SELESTOW: See the American tie he wears? He could have worn a Mao jacket. So you have to suspect propaganda.

SAINT DIANE: He is saying, "So I'll tell you to go to hell."

STEVEN ECKL: It is contemptuous.

Mandarin: "We will show you. We'll see. We'll see..." "We will show you who is superior..."

EMPEROR LeAMTHE: "You squares."

Nancy of Oregon: See the phoniness in his eyes?

MOTHER MARY: These are photos of contempt.

Disclaimer

Nancy of Oregon: The photos are not people we actually know of, other than the politicians.

MOTHER MARY: In the study of the Cosmic Clock, you look for black magic on the 12:00 o'clock line to begin a cycle. And contempt is on the 12:00 that begins also as said here as Criticism, Condemnation and Judgment. Black Magic. You identify the location on the Cosmic Clock of the discourse, and you then know where it goes— around the clock in this negative spiral.

MOTHER MARY—

In the following photos, we show you what you would recognize as normal faces for a comparison.

Mandarin: You are looking to see what might scare you, what might give you the heebie jeebies, you are looking for what seems the emotion-on-the-cuff as the “daggers in the heart” coming at you that you would know how to act accordingly.

Nancy of Oregon: Can you see the difference in the eyes? This one may not be smiling but you see his eyes?
