

The Fall of Man

Q: The question is what is the Fall of Man?

Typist: At the time of Lemuria some 90,000 years ago, it was a golden age. Now you have seen how I, the typist, am speaking to those in heaven, right? Basically those initiates of the Christ were also able to speak directly to Mother Mary. Mother Mary said that there has not been Christ scripture since the days of Lemuria. Nevertheless, it is not what you think, that earthlings caused this Fall of Man, it was that a plot concocted in heaven to cause people to be thrown out of heaven.

Lemuria was in heaven. The humans traversed both heaven and earth. They were thrown out of heaven, and could not return to heaven until the second Adam or Jesus Christ would be there to restore what was beyond the Cain and Abel story of the money versus Christ ongoing struggle. It is not for Adam and Eve that this casting out of heaven happened however.

Much came about in the discussion of false teachings. Adam and Eve were the leaders or the teachers of a mystery school. These were found in false theology and this was said why they were cast out of heaven. A word to the wise, if you hold such a high position, do not tamper with the false teachings. Go by tradition, go by what Jesus Christ established, and just do not go there with specious reasoning.

What were the false teachings on sex? You are learning much of this today, in coveting the power of coveting. The binding teachings. Much of these laws were not adhered to by Serpent.

Mandarin: Peshu Alga taught on witchcraft. Two of his students were witches in this life.

Typist: The false teaching as cause of their departure was for the Lord of the Garden to come up with the excuse that they were entertaining the idea: “they will not surely die” if you sin. In other words, this is a great sin. When you go around and around in one-step forward and two-steps backward. I will sin, and I will not surely die. This is a waste of time to those in heaven, you must not do this!

Nancy of Oregon: They can be seen in the deadbeats. Everyday is the same for them. They may live out the soap operas they watch—ennui.

ANDREA SELESTOW: Ennui and not growing also causes you two-steps backward that you do not belong in heaven any longer. It is not only at the time of Adam and Eve, it is now.

STEVEN ECKL: This then was work of Serpent or Peshu Alga or the fallen angel. Eve went to see Peshu Alga, had tea or beverage with him so to speak, and talking about some -ism where the following after them, would never grow forward. It was not however that Eve would not change from the ‘ism’s, she hung out with the wrong crowd of Peshu Alga and Adam followed her out of the mystery school, in the casting the humans out of heaven. It has been a long travail for comfort, has it not?

Nancy of Oregon: The Lord of the Garden was Lord Maitreya. There is not much known about him except that he has a great reasoning power.

NATHAN the Judge: The origin of the casting out of the humans out of heaven was not because of Adam and Eve, it was that Peshu Alga’s parents who were in every way regal and polished aristocrats and autocrats, had to cast the humans out of heaven. These parents are well to do very intelligent and articulate people. They wanted to control heaven as mafia would, with an autocratic government. What they said, goes.

Typist: They wanted the humans not to be in heaven. You can guess why. The path of the ascension was what would be there own demise. The humans have the ability to call for the judgment of those in heaven. The humans have the ability to traverse quite far because they can through a path of advancement quickly leapfrog over many forms of dysfunctional behaviors. They can come up with 12 step programs, they can learn how to be eagles not ants.

They are able to pass the 12 lines of the clock and take on new responsibilities in heaven as they have passed the initiations of the schoolroom on earth whereas those in heaven stay put in development. The Garden of Eden then symbolizes the path of initiation on earth.

NATHAN the Judge: Pehua Alga's parents then had the greater power in heaven, not Peshu Alga called Serpent. He was more the ladies' man not the aristocrat. He was not seeking the power in royalty as his parents. He could have many girlfriends and he did.

MALACHI: Heaven does not have the Ten Commandments. It is your assumption. Moses came and gave the Ten Commandments 2,500 years ago.

FATHER STRONG: And if Moses was responsible for the first 5 books of the Bible, you can see what Moses did. He told you many conditions if you do not have the Ten Commandments. He said verse after verse, "Choose life, not death."

Much of what he said was synergy.

Genesis is this teaching. The Ten Commandments. The name of God—YHVH. The burning bush that did not burn. The "take off thy shoes, for thou stand on holy ground." It was an Atom teaching from Genesis onward.

ANDREA SELESTOW: If you have humans in heaven, you cannot continue to place the fallen angels into earth without end. The humans would demand justice that the fallen angels Satan and Lucifer go to their second death. Thus Lucifer went in 1975, Satan and Peshu Alga in the 1980's went to their second death.

MALACHI: You cannot continue "forever" having chief demons as described in the Phylos book "An Earth Dweller Returns". They would at the judgment call be remanded for their crimes before the Cosmic Councils.

The chief demons have eternal life. This is being reversed at this time.

Perhaps this was what Peshu Alga parents wanted. They are royalty, they were not as Serpent who was a ladies' man.

Phylos explains that chief demons, Maleus and Mar-yus argue that they cannot be judged or die, they must have full reign in providing and guiding demons to taunt humans as evil must always be doing.

FATHER STRONG: His reasoning for the demons and they themselves also have eternal life, is that the Sons and Daughters of God become lazy.

FATHER MALACHI: This is true—people in ennui become ungrateful, they become ignorant and lazy. You saw this with Peshu Alga himself—a wastrel. “Without demons” they argue, “the humans will not struggle”.

NOSTREDAME: The Judgment Call has been made in this hour of the Judgment of Souls. People have had over 2,500 years now living with the Ten Commandments. There can no longer be the excuse to have either Peshu Alga’s parents as royalty in this system of worlds when the humans are continuously worn down with evil, with demons.

With the Ten Commandments, it obviates the need for chief demons, for continual fornication in heaven to bind people together such that they work against the humans on earth in holocaust, the World Wars I, II, and beyond.

STEVEN ECKL: Instead of having the demons sent time and time again—sending the necromancers and Hitlerian to learn of evil, and learn from history, by simply, instituting the Ten Commandments, there is room enough to learn from simple disobedience to the Ten Commandments, Mandarin: That one learns not to disobey the Ten Commandments, to not ever play Russian Roulette or they learn to not “run red lights”. Demons get worse and worse, not better and better. So demons are not to have eternal life.

Typist: In heaven then some people as a fashion kill their souls in order not to feel pain, these seek to live in comfort.

SERAPIS BEY: You grow from pain. And you learn the Christ path through suffering.

Typist: I hear only bits and pieces. You can see how this dovetails with Hostage to the Devil in which you either are going to fess up to your demons or not.

FATHER STRONG: It is a time that you need to wrestle with your demons.

FATHER MALACHI: The ennui that some of you find yourself in, that you would go and find a drug or comfort and not deal with your demons and dysfunctional behavior is such that you are not able to see that you think of simply a yawning behavior and a waving of your hand at injustice, and being in an endless pursuit out of your boredom in TV sports or entertainment or partying, it then becomes a further misunderstanding that you cannot simply move out to the suburbs and say, "I'm atheist" and live out your life in comfort, be called living with having a paycheck. You do not know whereof you speak.

FATHER STRONG: Past your death, you will find that you are put into a limbo, a twilight zone, it is called devachan. In this netherworld, where for hundreds of years, or after this time cycle of 100 years, there for 70,000 years, you will not be finding this level of the same mass communication.

FATHER MALACHI: Only then will you be able to find and to learn the Christ teachings, as it is not just reading the Bible, it is interactive so to speak. You have the land of the eagles, you have the Ten Commandments Religion. More is to this, learning of the Christ teachings than just having the bible, albeit that is rich in morals and ethics.

In the golden ages, you have ready access to information. I lived in New York City, the New City. You are able to find as such as in the Essence community whatever ancient teachings remembered from Atlantis that were kept on scrolls that were not even a part of the Dead Sea Scrolls albeit that is not even close to what they had. This is the school Jesus and John the Baptist had gone to. It was recorded in scroll and models, the solar system. The models demonstrated the planets rotations, the number of planets in which even today, not all of them have yet been found.

ANDREA SELESTOW: The times now are where there is this advancement in learning. You are on a fast track to make a great progress.

Nancy of Oregon: You meet with the mystery secrets. You learn at the Serapis Bey Etheric Temple which is also called the Ascension temple. There, Jesus Christ himself learned to take the initiations to the ascension, step by step, from its Hierarch, Serapis Bey.

Mandarin: You can learn from Serapis Bey, the straight-line teachings.

NATHAN the Judge: He teaches you about reality. Not lying.

Nancy of Oregon: At these special cyclic times, you learn about the 12 Lines of the Clock and the rosary from the Mother of God, Archael Mother Mary.

JESUS CHRIST: The Ten Commandments if instituted in heaven will be a great blessing to all. The ones who live by the Christ teachings are not the ones to be concerned thereof.
