News Broadcasting Is To Have You Think

SOMEBODY'S GOTTA SAY IT

by Neal Boortz, 2007

You hold in your hands a book by a radio talk-show host.. If you're like most people, on the other hand, you probably spend most of your time every day watching what you say, for fear that blurting out your insensitive thoughts might bring about adverse repercussions, whether at home, at work, or in your social life. Nope-not me! After all, it's my job to come up with things to say-things to get people talking.

JARVIS RAYMOND: Here is an example of what this talk-show host desires you to think upon.

Learned that the Bush administration has negotiated an agreement with Mexico that would allow illegal aliens to collect Social Security benefits in this country without working and paying Social Security taxes nearly as long as any American citizen would have to;

JARVIS RAYMOND: And another one.

Learned that the Mexican government is providing GPS devices to Mexican citizens to help them avoid American law enforcement as they illegally cross our border to become part of the Mexican invasion force.

JARVIS RAYMOND: This then is another raison d'être of the news reporter or media person. He has the accountability to alert people of what it is that they need to be talking about and be concerned with for their safety.

You can see that these two articles that follow are nothing as what you see from the United States controlled media. These are AP reporters who write these articles.

Illegal Immigrants will be Eligible to Apply for Social Security

Rense.com, Kent and Woodruff, Feb 2004

Under Bush's proposed amnesty, illegal immigrants will be eligible to apply for temporary worker status for up to six years, getting all the benefits of a citizen ranging from drivers' licenses to Social Security checks. To facilitate the amnesty, the president is asking Congress to raise the number of legal "green cards" handed out to immigrants each year, but he has so far not specified how many millions will be needed.

Bush to Give Illegals Social Security Benefits

President Bush wants to let some of the eight million illegal aliens in the United States move toward legal status without penalty -- but with benefits. His proposals, part of a sweeping change in U.S. immigration policy, will be revealed Wednesday, the Washington Times reported.

Bush will propose that illegal aliens from Mexico, and possibly other countries, who pay U.S. Social Security taxes, but provide false identification numbers, be allowed to collect benefits.

JARVIS RAYMOND: This next news reporter is not actually able to voice his concern honestly in such terms as he uses as "standard of service" and "culture of respect." He perhaps does not believe it himself yet he will write this article as if this is what you need to be thinking about, which is not the National Standard for broadcasting news!

$500M to cut INS application time to 6 months

Source: Paul Shepard, Associated Press, in Boston Globe, Jul 2000

Expanding on a proposal to improve the INS, Bush pledged $500 million in new spending yesterday to cut the time needed to process an immigration application to an average of six months. Bush said the process now takes three to five years. Late last year, the INS announced that average times had been reduced from two years to 12 months, and were headed lower.

Bush said, "We will bring to the INS a new standard of service and a culture of respect,” The new spending, to be doled out over five years, is the latest part of an INS overhaul plan that Bush’s campaign believes will resonate with Latino voters. “We’ve got an INS that is too bureaucratic, too stuck in the past,” he said.

MOSES: The newspaper news writer is one who comes under the function of the Deputy to defend the Queen’s land. He is to learn the laws of this nation, he is to serve as a whistle-blower.

ARCHANGEL RAPHAEL: The giving of illegal aliens Social Security benefits is clearly adultery. Thou Shall Not Commit Adultery — the Eighth Commandment.
