Mass Ascension From the Hillside

Nancy of Oregon: We asked Napoleon what of a list of additions to the US Constitution what was it that impressed him. He said it was this: "Rhetoric taught along with physical science and logic."

- Religious instruction to teach ecclesiastical or cosmic law such as backdirect. History taught for morality, rhetoric taught along with physical science and logic. All are for integrity and not lying in a free society.

NATHAN the Judge: He did not think this was the only word however: rhetoric. However he saw that in a fascist nation, all they care about is to be married and go to the malls and they are satisfied whereas the French cannot be without having the ability to be in an examination of an idea to see where it goes, what happens when you adopt an idea such as the Karl Marx theory, where does it lead you?

He said in the life of the Frenchman, through these exercises of thought, he defines what is of his thinking whether is patently Greek or Latin or French.

ANDREA SELESTOW: Perhaps what we did at Camelot will explain. We had to be tested on the University tests not only to see what was memorized but we had to think and often scored low when the answer was looking at the other actions of sentences for the depth of a word, sincere meaning of words, the meaningful content in writings and speeches.

STEVEN ECKL: One is not only defining words by asking, “what does that word mean?” A person goes through mentally the back and forth discipline of find synonyms and antonyms to find an exact meaning of what is the description of the word that can take 15 trips through the various synonym categories of a thesaurus.

NOSTREDAME: Once these synonyms are found in this way, these are permanent constructs of words as part of the vocabulary— one has sought the 100 repertoire, especially in and over time, in writing and discourse. There can be also discursive thinking taught.

Nancy of Oregon: In comparing France to the US for evolution of freedom states, Napoleon asked why is rhetoric there? Primarily it was that it had been taught at one point with the Washington Irving Sketchbook but it was what we learned to do at Camelot. And there, we were cognizant of the gift we had which were the Second Advent Teachings. The United States is the land of the Second Advent of Jesus Christ to have the teachings that finish the mysteries of the holy mission from 2,000 years ago.

JESUS CHRIST: Not all the teachings were given nor could they be given 2,000 years ago. You need to have the discipleship to receive the higher teachings and the disciples in Jerusalem of old were not able to understand them for their level.

KUTHUMI: The “mass ascensions from the hillsides of the world” was a prediction of Jesus Christ given actually at Camelot when it was described that there were 1,000,000 ascensions under Jesus Christ on the ancient land of Atlantis over 75,000 years ago. Half went to the land of Suern, half ascended who had followed the Emperor Jesus Christ then.

JESUS CHRIST: This event of the mass ascensions would take place in the United States if it would become a golden age. An event for those who would balance over a certain percentage of their backdirect and gain mastery of a certain percentage that would be found at the time of death to be ascending from inner levels.

MOSES: Largely this has happened in most cases. It was through the application of the formal teachings given as the Second Advent Teachings at Camelot—it is also much of what you today receive. It does include much of the teachings I gave on diet however and you cannot defy the laws of diet but discipline yourself to eat correctly as the Essences and religious communities did.

Thus the “ecclesiastical studies’ is to this end, that backdirect was taken out of the Bible at 100 A.D by the First Council of Nicea. And Jesus Christ had taught on backdirect and so did John the Baptist.

EL MORYA: The US would be the place for learning and growing in the most straight-line manner to balance backdirect. It would be the place for the most straight-line way to gaining mastery toward the ascension.

NATHAN the Judge: The mass ascensions is an unusual event in the long epochs of time.

Nancy of Oregon: This is juxtaposed with the drughead thinking of “an opium thinking” to think in hallucination. And for a free nation to exist, the elements of the drughead thinking must be taught, and drugheads killed.

Living here is also not about $5 shoes.

MOTHER MARY: It is for this reason of the United States in having the dispensation of Christ lineage, the nation must be defended in nationalism and militarily with a mighty police force and the exactly-right thinking.
