

US National Standard in Culture

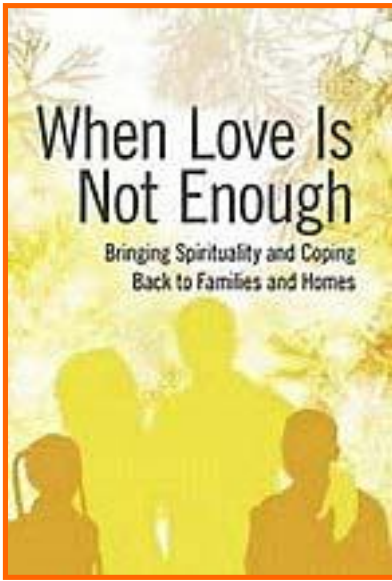

2

Hallucinate Drugs

ANDREA SELESTOW: The hallucinating drugs has been said to be “ah, opium” or “ah, marijuana” thinking. He on the road when the road gets rough, says to himself, “I can return to this space or place of hallucination, and then I will be able to see clearly.” The hallucination does not only mean getting there by drugs, it can be alcohol, chocolate, sex and love. People even say the “high” is the same as love.

FATHER MALACHI: Love is work. Life is work. Liberty is work. When the going gets rough, it is not in order to find a high ANDREA SELESTOW: Here it says "when" love is not enough. It is for you to realize where this 'Y' in the road appears in your life.

NATHAN the Judge: Being in a free society such as the United States, France or England, does not mean that you use drugs, alcohol or love to find that place that you are free from pain. Pain of conscience. Pain of mortality. Rather, the pain is a part of the growth process.

FATHER STRONG: You are faced with demons. That becomes of your own making. Where you become demon possessed, you are in an addictive pattern, that requires an exorcism priest. And with marijuana-deathdrug, it could be the end. There are ways of life, there are ways of death.

There is a way that seems right unto a man,
but the end thereof are the ways of death.
Proverbs 16:25

MOSES: I would add killing and sadism to that "high."

"All hallucinate drugs are poison."

Mother Mary