

US National Standard in Culture

18

R&B Soul Music

Song:

Shenandoah

Patriotic Medley

NOSTREDAME: You are training your ear to hear soul music. In music pieces such as “Shenandoah” and “Home on the Range” and “Swing Low, Sweet Chariot”, you, an artist, are hearing as part of your training of the ear in what it means to play soul music, the whispers are heard of the home.

Michael Jackson: This was the Negroid singing that we were all trained in.

Nancy of Oregon: The high of the drughead is a different home. It is a diabolical one, where he wrests the powers of the high in what is a hallucination, what power he may derive from that high. It is deceptive as he becomes more bedraggled each day but does not reach closer to the heavenly home any more closely which requires initiation and humility to approach the altar.

Stevie Wonder: You may say that my blindness helped me to see that home more clearly. What was on the outer from having eyesight, I did not have, and you learn not to seek to covet it either.

Michael Jackson: The reality of the soul music is toward this home in the heavenly world, the “home” that we all return to at the end of life. It is part of the New Orleans gospel music as a vehicle, but the soul music is this ability of the soul to hear this cadence.

MOSES: This is the home of the soul music. If not for any other reason, the soul music is to remind one of this home. Shenandoah is the specific reminder of home to you.

I am asking for the medley American the Beautiful—God Bless America—Battle Hymn the Republic, posted as it again sounds of the home of freedom

It is to remind you that you as a people must not take your freedom to mean the same democracy as other nations.

YOU ARE THE CHOSEN PEOPLE

You cannot let marijuana-deathdrug into society!

MOTHER MARY: You are being shown a different “home”. It is not your home! The home is what the drugheads refer to in this community gathering, to share in a “peace” that is a stupor and a certain death.

MOSES: You are the ones with the ignited Threefold Flame. You must not give this path of holiness of Love, Wisdom and Love, of FAITH, HOPE AND CHARITY up for the drug lords and moneychangers to lead you down the path of perdition. .

“All hallucinate drugs are poison.”

Mother Mary

Paintings by American painter: Andrew Wyeth.

Copyright © Gospel of Christ Mission 2017