

US National Standard in Culture

19

R&B Soul Music

Song:

Michael Jackson: ABC

Michael Jackson: The soul speaks a different language than the tic-toc rational mind.

Nancy of Oregon: What the typist calls as a voice that says, "That's b.s.!"

NATHAN the Judge: You are able to see the difference in morals.

Stevie Wonder: It is what Michael calls, "If you would be honest with yourself."

MOSES: It is said with anger or emotion when you are in contact with your soul that seeks to protect you.

MOTHER MARY: When someone uses the word "high" you quickly correct the word to say, "hallucinate."

Michael Jackson: The language of the drughead is very imprecise. The rapper. The language of the soul is precise.

MOSES: It is succinct. You are the ones with the ignited Threefold Flame. You must not give this path of holiness of Love, Wisdom and Love, of FAITH, HOPE AND CHARITY up for the liars to lead you down the path of perdition.

NOSTREDAME: This is the high.

MOSES: I would add killing and sadism to that
"high hallucinate."

"All hallucinate drugs are poison."

Mother Mary