Mother Mary

The 5:00 O’Clock Line of Ignorance

COMMENTARY: The priests of the Catholic Church are asking in righteous indignation whether the word used “demand” is appropriate “for the laity to demand to have the 24/7 vigils to Mother Mary.”

It was not revolution on the streets taught at Malibu Camelot, it was a revolution in higher consciousness. The fiat we made at the altar was,

“I demand justice.
I call forth the Light.
I will not take ‘no’ for an answer.”

It is almost a year that Jesus Christ has asked them to stop feeding the illegal aliens. These seek to overtake the US in revolution, saying you are on our Mexican land. These parade with Mexican flags and you have already seen their protests at the colleges and staged sit-ins at Trump Towers. It has already been said that Mother Mary is quite upset that the Mexicans cross the border and take over the houses at the border, and the farms as they go North.

MOTHER MARY: You think these are Catholic priests, these are insurgents.

POPE JOHN PAUL II, Ascended: They are thinking of “revolution” as the Catholic Church Sandinista priests in Nicaragua.

COMMENTARY: Revolution is not violence but it is with the sword, in words, in writing, in confronting the lie. Where is the co-measurement, it is almost a year.

“If an ant speaks the truth, heed him.”

“Ignorance is no excuse.”

EL MORYA: What the priests are saying is in ignorance. They are saying: “We do not believe in the 24/7 vigil.”

POPE JOHN PAUL II, Ascended: And they even called the parish who has this vigil to see if it made a difference in their lives.

ANDREA of Chicago: I could say, that the Catholic priests at the Vatican are misogynists who you already know hate women. But better instead, I would say, get into the habit that what comes from the altar, that you do not put a spin on it.

ARCHAEI MARY: Do not just put a spin on the Third Secret. Do not put a spin on the rosary. Do not just put a spin on Pope John Paul II.

EL MORYA: You have to understand that this is a discipline we require. It is of Augustine, of Kant, of Newman, that you rationalize, find excuses to bolster your preference, you categorize, and you then find yourself suddenly in ignorance of divine law, the inviolable custom of Moses in the practice of holiness.

MOTHER MARY: It is in ignorance of the fact that John Paul II, a Polish pope, and the Polish are devoted to My Heart, that he collapsed world communism West and East.

EL MORYA: It is an ignorance of the facts. He knew the Third Secret! He gave his rosary to Mother Mary every day in the afternoon.

NOSTREDAME: It is said in an ignorance of the fact that millions were killed under World Communism, people starved intentionally in the Ukraine and the Red China famines! This is the American ignorance in carte blanche!

COMMENTARY: Professor Edward Said of New York City would speak of the Palestinian situation, “Ignorance is no excuse.” The ignoring of the suffering of the Palestinians is no excuse. Not investigating the facts in their Zionist position is ignorance, it is American’s ignoring the facts. The professor had death threats in America, he had a button to push in his house to call the police. The American media does not as the Europeans take accountability for the lives lost.

Honor is what is being spoken of here.

JESUS CHRIST: If it is at the Iraqi prison and it is American soldiers torturing inmates, the American journalist absolves himself and all Americans of the atrocities.

COMMENTARY: There is no shame, no alert to justice, no desiring to correct this. It is provincialism as Professor Said noted. To me, he essentially said, if you are an American, you think you are a perfect race. You do not need to concern yourself with the suffering of other people. And you freely state your bias and work with the current Washington DC regime and that you call journalism.

FATHER MALACHI: The Catholic Church I described in Windswept House. The priests consider they are priest to be wearing their priestly garb, familiar with monstrosities, walking from the aristocrats’ homes, preaching in beautiful churches, careful liaisons, involved with the old family names in America.

COMMENTARY: You are then the product of the Teilhard de Chardin’s where science has effectively taken out the holiness.

MOTHER MARY: How lost is it that you are that you cannot understand that holiness saved you before the altar in time of need.

COMMENTARY: Might I then answer that if you were at Camelot, you would be asked to go wash toilets.

EMPEROR LeAMTHE: They would wash toilets as a self-imposed discipline if they cannot stop feeding the illegal immigrants and enact the 24/7 vigils to Mother Mary as asked by both Jesus Christ and Mother Mary.

COMMENTARY: Professor Said commented that the Americans write in clichés. It’s just “ignorance.”

EMPEROR LeAMTHE: The “ignorance” on the 5:00 is not a mild term.

MOTHER MARY: On the Cosmic Clock, the 5:00, on the opposite line is the 11:00 o'clock line. Then what you do in ignorance unstopped, cycles to violence and terrorism of the 11:00 o'clock line.

JESUS CHRIST: They would not wash toilets as they truly did not understand the word “demand”. They did not understand the word “revolution” either. They are however given the teaching this day that they fall short of the mark of understanding what are the tears on the Mother Mary statues asking again and again for the rosary!

EL MORYA: They would not in any case wash toilets. The chelas at Camelot were taught these principles to act immediately on the will of God. They were taught year upon year that ignorance is no excuse, that there is no injustice.

However, do put in the 24/7 vigil to Mother Mary. Obey the injunction and honor the injunction to not feed the illegal aliens.
