

The Teaching of B.B. King 1

Suffrage

To Be With Michael Jackson's Teachers

You learn a lot about the suffrage of the Negroids after you make on the other side. The first utterance from Michael Jackson when I asked him to speak on music was instead, for him to call for the judgment of the lawmakers.

B. B. King: What essentially has happened in the United States in the freeing of the slaves has been to isolate them in pockets of great poverty. They say it is education that will eventually bring them up. It has not done that. It is for the reason that the educators themselves only teach math or science and are not cultivators as the California Missions when they took the American Indian, dressed them up clean, made them not be like the Negroids to eat cheap fast foods but eat good food, and made them to read the Bible and to give up their Indian savage ways.

What chicanery you see in the Negroid race is kept as their culture that they try to hide perhaps but to call Michael Jackson an Uncle Tom does not change one iota of the educational system in the United States that keeps the Negroids segregated as a race.

What they are in need of, is inculcation the same as you see in the Sound of Music. That their manners, their language and their behavior is what the White people are doing themselves. And this, the educational system from the Supreme Court did not put into law.

Michael Jackson: About the only raising of the culture that the Negroids did was to dress nice.

EL MORYA: Essentially what they did was to say Negroids are only good for music and sports. The elementary school teachers waited out for them to leave school and go back to the ghettos.

EMPEROR LeAMTHE: The Negroids were to go back to their housing with the shattered windows and liquor bottles on the streets. How is it that Negroids consistently make 55% less the same Chinese shop owners if they went through a supposed same public school American education!

B. B. King: Even Washington Carver from agriculture did not make it such a hero to them. It was music or sports. Willie Mays of the SF Giants Magic Johnson of basketball.

It eventually has to be based on law, law and order, militarism and law, law and jurisdiction, law and politics, perhaps, though not positively as lawyers are not necessarily practicing law. But LAW not race.
