

The Teaching of Amos & Andy 7

Habits of Good Judgment

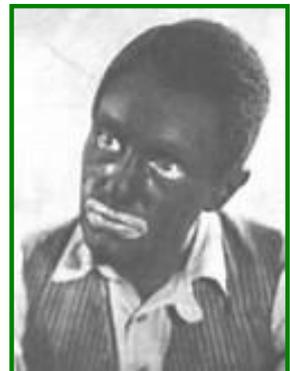

Amos & Andy: We were the same as Raymond Jarvis, to take incarnation to pave the way for freedom in the United States. He was the founder of the New York Times newspaper, setting the journalism standard to be one of the deputy who investigates the facts to report it in the newspapers for the law to judge the case. We have chosen not to take our ascension at this time.

MOTHER MARY: What they would teach then is of a great help to you as you look for models of excellence in thought.

Nancy of Oregon: For me, Amos & Andy were excellent teachers, but more importantly, in particular to the Negroids. You saw how Amos & Andy would take apart what was directed at them and analyzed it to deal with extreme prejudices.

ANDREA of Chicago: They are legendary characters. A type of Robin Hood. They taught us as children how to diffuse bigotry. They recognized the hatred and would go about diffusing it. They would stop the lie—they did not only act or live to be accepting lies.

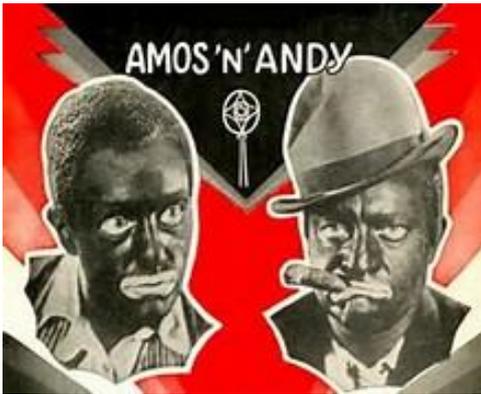

Do you remember this look? It was the beginning of the story how they would then try and get out of trouble.

“The income of Chinese-Americans from Chinese-owned businesses is in proportion to their numbers 45 times as great as the income of Negroes from Negro-owned businesses.”

But what is true of business is also true for the other social institutions that operate within the ghetto. The educators, policemen, social workers, politicians, and others who administer the affairs of ghetto residents are typically whites who live outside the Negroid community. Thus the ghetto plays a strategic role as the focus for the administration by outsiders.

On cars and other loans. The Negroid pay on a loan many times more than someone outside the ghetto. Either they do not have credit established or the lender charges more for the address of the Negroid.

Kid Ory: The Negroes also do not do the math!

Ella Fitzgerald: The White people introduced drugs into the Negro communities.

Kid Ory: They thought how ignorant they are that they would believe the lie that they were advancing themselves by getting drugged and hallucinating.

Ella Fitzgerald: It is not a Negro conspiracy, believe me. Aunt Jemima, a devote working for Mother Mary will speak on drugs later. We have ourselves— Michael Jackson, Louis Armstrong, Count Basie and others—have already done some work in this direction!

HOLY AIMEE: No, it is not simply a saying no to drugs. The dealers create such a huge backlash to poison others that they either go to the second death at the end of that life or they have more than 100,000 years to work off such a huge backdirect. They spend their years in hell in between embodiedments. It is not simply another business to enter.

JESUS CHRIST: What you must ignore is the admonishment of Mother Mary that all hallucinating drugs are poison. To not ignore what they are doing that is Absolute Evil. They bring it in as a lucrative business for you to be in, and it has destroyed the Negroid communities!

The thrift store is a middle class phenomena.
The Negroids buy new TVs, cars, furniture, new clothes.
They do not buy from the thrift stores!

B.B. King: What you read here is not for you. You are to go to the thrift stores to buy second hand if it makes sense! You are told to do the drugs, you are told to buy new and it is 10-50 times more money to buy new.

Deputy Amos: We saw ourselves as knights as we were deputies.

Jelly Roll Morton: What is said here is about what you think, and retrain yourself in your habits of thought and movement. The White people telling you that you cannot go buy at thrift stores is a plot to destroy you!

EL MORYA: It was I who started Salvation Army with Evangeline, William and Bramwell Booth. It is a Christian organization of charity. How is it that you would not benefit in participating in such Christian endeavors whether it be receiving or giving?

MOTHER MARY: Or promoting the Christian way of life.

Deputy Amos: You have to see through these shenanigans! You can wear any outfit and it does not define you. How about a Phd here! You are more than your skin color, from Africa? No, you are an Eagle from Plymouth Rock.

Nancy of Oregon: The question being asked is if there is any future if Negroids are from Africa and they themselves do not make much headway themselves there either.

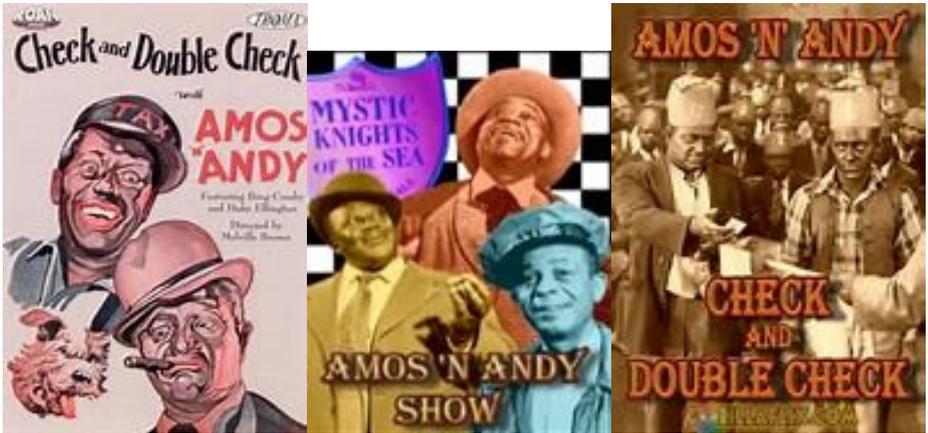

Deputy Amos: You are not of Africa. You are Christians from England. The Baptist are descendants of Plymouth Rock. What Christians in Africa there were, were Nestorians and it was either not evangelized or it was Moslem.

Deputy Andy: The Negroids being of the Seventh Ray would apply to the priest class which includes the gospel writers.

Perhaps your question is on moving away from slavery. The Greeks and Romans also had slaves. But the culture with the greatest failure would be the one of great cruelty to all people.

You each have had many embodiedments on other continents. Albeit some of you prefer the Negroid race to find the gentility, and that is your choice.

Deputy Amos: You find what are the habits of success to do.

Typist: The Seventh Ray people from my experience would fail for compromise. Cleopatra compromises with Rome. The colonialists found the acceptance of bribery. Accepting leaders who drink human blood or carrying bloody voodoo heads.

Deputy Amos: As long as the Negroids sing soul music, and they act from soul intelligence which we tried to explain to you in the TV show, it is to say perhaps, “that’s b.s.” and thus, you would day by day refine the soul imagery, language and intelligence.

EMPEROR LeAMTHE: The Negroid sees himself as weak and can fall for the temptation to side with evil as the powerful ones who use force. The moment they take on the White man’s disease of the double-minded man, the devil’s advocate, when they side with a powerful evil, they ultimately go to hell.

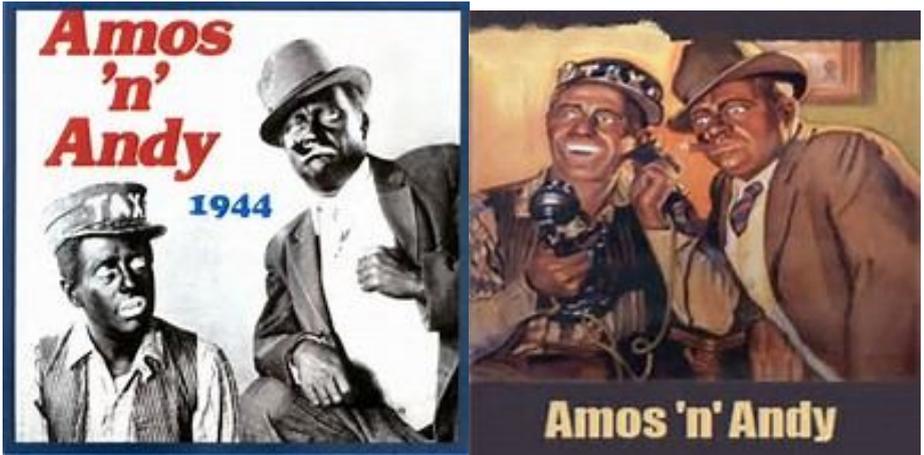

Amos & Andy: They have the ability on the Seventh Ray to see the hologram of “It’s a wonderful world” as did Louis Armstrong. This is seeing and imaging outside of the tic-toc thinking though you are logical. The Blue Ray races include the White people, Islam, the Aryan races who live on force to usually calculate the balance of power. So Negroids often reincarnate again as gentle people as they prefer this for their home Ray so to speak.

Deputy Amos: Historically, you have not had the Prince of Peace on earth. You would then cherish our work, some of the work done by Bill Paley, Raymond Jarvis, Harry Luce, the TV shows we did that give you a different understanding of what can be done in the United States as a culture to defuse the hatreds of prejudice and bigotry.

Deputy Andy: Your question is best answered by moving to the North. Not associate with Africa at all. They are different.

Amos & Andy: You are capable of seeing this which we refer to you this day from our TV show.

NOSTREDAME: The Negroids you saw in the Amos & Andy show were extremely intelligent and though they were unable to direct the course of history, they were able to find a way to live with the untoward situation.

Deputy Amos: In our TV show, it shows this intelligence.

We are only telling you of our history today, that we are deputies no different than Raymond Jarvis of the New York Times newspaper.

It is with this soul intelligence that the race will most assuredly move ahead.
