

Teaching of Amos & Andy 8 Overcoming Insolence

DEPUTY AMOS: The insolence is still formidable. It is a nasty type of response. The Negroid will even pretend not to hear and is heard thinking aloud: "Who do you think you are to ask me to do work?"

DEPUTY ANDY: They cannot be asked for even "What time is it?" or driving directions on the street without having fear to well up or responding in insolence.

DEPUTY AMOS: They feel if they give the wrong answer, they will be beaten, and in this work you are working CONSCIOUSLY.

DEPUTY ANDY: ... to approach people and give directions wearing a white shirt and bow tie, they quickly can overcome!

Their behavior is still as slave. But they are not slaves now. And they need a path. It is what Judge Holmes said, to teach them of their co-dependency in Church.

ANDREA of Chicago: What is in the Jewish faith on community is relevant to the Negroids. The Jewish faith provides people with a growth path. They have guides. The guides are not guru but companion. They teach on what is prayer, on different forms of prayer, how to imagine God. They teach on having a special relationship with God. The Jewish path is the more exact closeness to what is needed to move the Negroid community ahead.

Nancy of Oregon: What the Jewish path offers is community. Once you have had the spiritual guidance, you teach the next person to help the next Negroid.

ANDREA of Chicago: You would not have Christian counselors which are burned out priests. Confession can be introduced that can be as long as Martin Luther into the hours. Common sense would tell you having a caring heart is all that is needed.

Nancy of Oregon: We have heard from Judge Oliver Wendell Holmes about teaching co-dependency at Church. The co-dependency the Negroids have knowledge of, they were beaten without cause by someone drunk with power.

DEPUTY AMOS: This is the vision.

Instead, for you the Negroid staying at these levels of unimprovement, that you would set up programs for improvement.

The Negroid can react to any person asking them to do work, so in this state he finds himself at, he can quickly move up in empowerment by going to the 24/7 vigil to be sounding the perfect Word.

He then goes back for some more guidance from a co-worker on the path, not the burned out priest. The Bible is assigned to him as reading. Then he goes back to the 24/7 vigils. In this self-improvement program that is a part of the community work.

DEPUTY ANDY: The co-dependency is taught not the same as in the Alcoholics Anonymous program but the religious one of Judaism. In prayer work, he has Mother Mary to call upon in the rosary. They also have Amos and Andy to call upon. When Stevie Wonder ascends, you will have such as these to pray to.

DEPUTY AMOS: Michael Jackson can ascend from inner levels, it would help him if you would correct his music for him to be able to ascend the more quickly.

DEPUTY ANDY: You would take off his pictures off the internet of him being shown a monster or demon. Which actually creates backdirect for him.

DEPUTY AMOS: You have someone to pray to. But confession would eliminate hours of just counselor-talk.

DEPUTY ANDY: Confession can be private or objective before a healer or homeopath who prescribes a medicine additionally.

MOSES: Learn to recognize insolence and raise up others as you see it in yourself. I led the slave class out of Egypt, and they had to follow in strict obedience without back-talking or be lost in the Sinai Desert.

There is a way. Yes, there is a way out of this condition! I led slaves out of Egypt (smile).

DEPUTY AMOS: You can see how awkward it is for this Negroid.

DEPUTY ANDY: Where you are not able to do this giving of directions without back-talking insolence, you would try to wear a bow tie to overcome this condition.

MOSES: What you are seeing here in Andy is piety. Piety was taught to the rabbis. And with the Christians, it was always a thorn in their side as what was pointed out to them was an hypocrisy they perceived coming from the Christians. You will see in the next few teachings why.
