

A Safe Binding In Religion

JESUS CHRIST: The case is from the soldiers' families of the military officer killed by the Red Guard to control battalions of the military, the families killed had their intestines tied around their necks.

One family in New Orleans, called to me, screaming, "Jesus, Jesus, Jesus" and I was there in less than 2 seconds.

Aimee and I escorted their souls out. And they went to safety and rest.

HOLY AIMEE: All that these Eagles knew was the name of Jesus. And the oldest child of the family, the more intellectual one at Jesus saying "follow me" said, "This looks like Jesus, looks like all the pictures of him that we've seen. We can follow him." He called out to the rest of the family, to follow Jesus out and myself out.

JESUS CHRIST: We told them to not look back at their bodies. "Do not turn around and look."

Many months later, I spoke to the oldest child as he asked about why they were not allowed to look back. We told them of their bodies having been mutilated after they had had a chance to rest and recuperate. The photos shown here are of an Etheric Retreat in Arizona where they went to rest. And they have since gone on in their studies, the mother busy in her sewing projects.

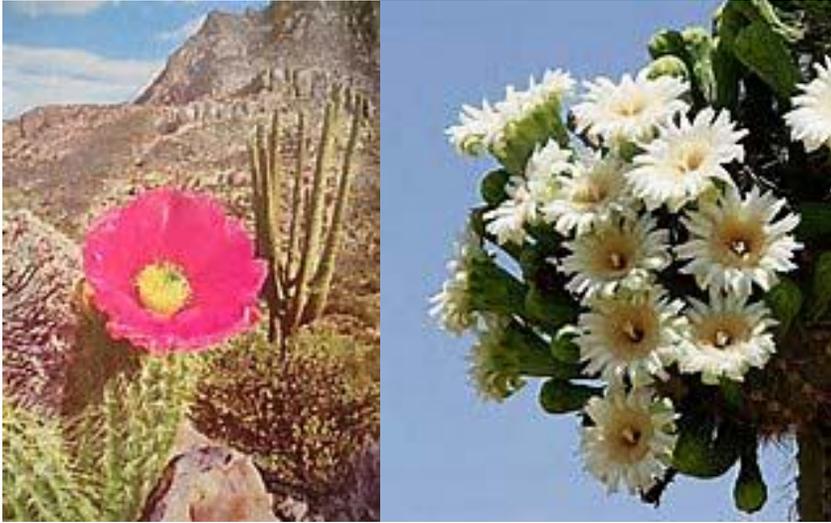

HOLY AIMEE: The military officer suffered greatly for many years in his grief. A meeting was arranged between Mother Mary with the military officer. A great relief came to him when he learned that his family did not ever see the mutilated bodies.

The oldest child spoke just as he normally did, his first words were, "Dad, we're fine! We're fine!"

The military officer went on to a great peace in his life thereafter, knowing that the children called to Jesus who did arrive, who would arrive. And he would tell other soldiers—to call on the name of Jesus— in times of trouble.

JESUS CHRIST: What was remarkable to me in speaking to this family was what the father had taught. What the children remembered was the father taking them to carnivals and games. His saying, "We need to love the Negroes. They are people, only of another race. Many you see are Baptists." This is what the children remembered him for. And when the eldest child asked about the Red Chinese who mutilated their bodies, I explained to them, that it is not a loving of all races only, you must be able to see the difference. To not love but hate that which is evil from a country that practiced cannibalism and such Satanism. And these from New Orleans understood.

HOLY AIMEE: The holy ministry continues ever after death.

JESUS CHRIST: This ongoing ministry is determined by whom you will serve—the Light or the Dark.

The tenets of the Church will include the Exodus.

The tenets of the Church described in the Talmud Oral Law orders that you know what are the horrors of evil.

MOSHE: It is for your protection.
