

The Presence of Elohim

More on the History of the Military Law Council September 2016

ANDREA of Chicago: Bill Gates will go down in history as one who could not resolve his love for Elohim Astrea as he had been Czar Peter and as for his alignment with the Cabal types.

COMMENTARY: That actually changed when Elohim Astrea returned to his life.

ANDREA of Chicago: That he was in charge of the martial law team is that he had already been working towards their world takeover plans with the Cabal.

ELOHIM ASTREA: However he was torn, he chose the more seedy ways always even in the Silicon Valley days before my return.

ANDREA of Chicago: However he also knew there was no way that America could become Communists as he thought most Americans are not like him and Melinda, always rebellious, but like his Christian father and mother, myself and the generals. However his past lives would prevail in terms of his life direction, over how he was raised by Mary Gates.

MOTHER MARY: He said himself, once you get in with them, the Cabal, you cannot get out.

NOSTREDAME: The present Military Law Council will be conducted by a praetor. He is one who stays out of politics. He is one to stay out of the limelight. You might say, he must live in an ivory tower. His role is to organize the generals, give them goals and disciplines them in highest morality and to control their pride and ambitious ego.

Alternatively to this praetor, the office of President has been one of tyrannical control of Congress and the Supreme Court as you see in NAFTA to pave the way for the transfer of a free nation the United States to a Red Communist country—Red China. Even Ross Perot's arguing against NAFTA was a ceremonial show to put through NAFTA.

Nancy of Oregon: We spoke on "Church and State". It is not a debate—it is one of reality. For the United States to have freedom, it is as said—freedom a religious concept!

ANDREA of Chicago: Seen in a grand historical perspective, can you not see this! That Elohim Astrea working through Czar Peter brought about the advancement of culture in Russia not seen before.

NOSTREDAME: The art and religion in the United States is not to be euphemistically “supported by dollars”. Culture, art and religion must be paid for to work as policy, as raison d’etre.

Culture cannot be left as you see it now, where anyone from another country can introduce their own holidays such as Sinko de Mayo with the skulls and the eating of candied skulls of enemies from Mexican bakeries when this nation is Judeo-Christian!

The arts, sculpture, architecture must be as the crystal cities on Atlantis, where the people can fly and travel from one side of the city to another through the crystals placed in the buildings.

This is important for you to understand!

Through the very mastery of the substances of the earth in the crystals is also through the very mastery of self. You are living at the highest morality, you live for the highest morality.

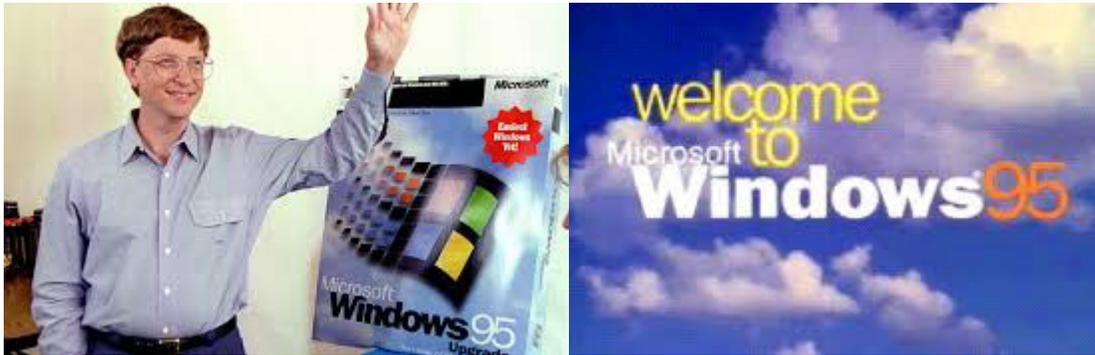

This golden age can be also of the United States. Then try to recognize that Elohim on Atlantis was to have these higher mental energies on Atlantis governing through a Military Law Council!

In the example of Bill Gates, he is meant to lead by going beyond his business acquisition plans to bring about the culture of the higher mental energies of Elohim Astrea. What he did as Czar Peter. It is what the Military Law Council is then doing as they receive their instruction through prayer and supplication at the altar of God.

COMMENTARY: The Astrea ICBMs are another story from the Helios missiles.

Bill Gates had not expected to see Elohim Astrea. The Divine Mother Astrea would contact him after the visit of Red China to Microsoft and Boeing. Contact him after the Administration’s saying, “We are at war.”

When Elohim Astrea returned, she reviewed the dispensation of Microsoft with him, given by the Karmic Board or the Backdirect Board. She spoke to him about his retirement years. Spending it in research along with his engineers.

MOTHER MARY: Bill Gates has some inner sight. You cannot know this, however, Bill Gates was substantially changed at the return of Elohim Astrea. He reduced his eyeglass prescriptions, took homeopathic medicine under the Divine Mother Astrea's direction. He worked entirely different with Microsoft at that point.

COMMENTARY: He was a changed man for Elohim. These are the higher mental energies possible for the United States. Thus when you read of the Military Law Council, you are not able to see that for Elohim to expose Ron Paul as an opportunist, you yourself are not able to do this yourself as the higher mental energies are coming from the Elohim and Archangels for these United States.

NOSTREDAME: One former President himself asked in bewilderment, "How is it that these missiles are floating around the earth?"

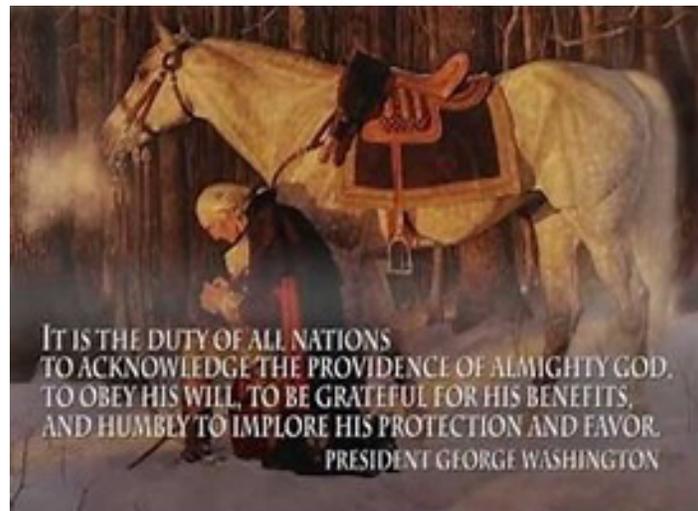

In South America, they recognize the presence of heaven acting for and on behalf of the United States.

This floating of the missiles is the Presence of Ra or Helios. You have no idea of the Presence of Helios and his judgment. The Thomas Jefferson activists cannot see these conditions as their mind is fixated in tic-toc rationality.

Nancy of Oregon: The missiles are as toothpicks to God Helios. The natural cycle referred to the sinking of continents is the regular turning of the earth's axis in judgment.

MOTHER MARY: The work with the other generals has also been with such dramatic changes in their lives. Nevertheless the generals that followed after Bill Gates were of a very high caliber. Then you have Sergeant York working with the generals.

Linda Smith: Whether you believe the ICBMs are floating in the air and going nowhere, once launched from enemy nations, it is actually more incumbent upon you to recognize the Presence of Elohim, having worked with the advanced civilization on Atlantis. It happened then, it happens now! If it is only one of a small pocket of people who understand the Presence of Light, then so be it. The United States must go forward without having the Red Communist flag flying on its soil.

- D: Then were there times whenever man would evolve so far and the civilizations would be destroyed, before the Atlantean continent was formed?
- P: There was, as the sands of the desert shifting the shifting fortunes of man. For there were always those advances which would preeminent that particular culture to a level of distinction among its peers. Through various types of what could be called “misfortune” these cultures never seemed to establish a firm foothold on the civilizations in place at that time. And so there was a continual loss and rebuilding, and then loss again. Until suddenly there came the great advancement of that continent of Atlantis. There were previous to that many cultures which were in excess of the spiritual character of Atlantis. However, none taken in the context of the overall population as a whole. There were individuals in other cultures who through diligence and self-denial, and training, reached those levels of awareness, which were above the general population of Atlantis. However, we speak here of a general overall population awareness. That is, the culture or population in general had reached the high area of awareness. And there were cultures previous to the Atlanteans who were of a higher moral character, but yet had not the same type of culture or inner-connectedness about it. It was more of the individual basis.
- D: But each time mankind, had to start over again from a very low level?

- P: There were always those who were keepers of the knowledge, for that was a jealously guarded secret. The knowledge was protected with much reverence and dignity. However, it was not available to the population in general. And so there were always those of the higher moral standards, who were the keepers of the knowledge.
- D: Then the Earth had changed, continents had risen and disappeared, before this time of Atlantis.
- P: That is accurate. This was caused by various cataclysms natural to the planet
- D: You said you could see a city in the distance?
- P: The keepers of the knowledge are based or emanate from this city. The Elohim of the ancients, the keepers of the moral physical laws of truth. That is the highest form of awareness of the natural and physical laws of mankind, in conjunction with the spiritual awareness.
- D: Then the ones that had these so-called mental powers were only a few in comparison to the whole population?
- P: Not so, for the city as a whole was very aware. It is as if this city itself held some type of energy, which seemed to elevate these people to far greater potentials than were normally seen throughout the rest of the country.
- D: What makes the city shine?
- P: It is of the crystal nature, from the building materials which constitute their construction. It is as if the concrete you use today were of a crystalline nature.
- D: Are you at the city where you can look around and observe?
- P: There is a somewhat reluctant attitude to go nearer to the city. For those who are not of the highest energy were not allowed in, for it would cause considerable damage to the physical and spiritual entity, as a whole. The energy level of this city was such that it would overload those who were not familiar with how to channel this energy. And so it is a somewhat precautionary measure that we observe from a distance. For the energy is much too powerful to attempt to channel at this time.
