Q: If we do not have Martin Luther King, who do we have?

ANDREA of Chicago: George Washington Carver in the place of Martin Luther King for the holiday would have been better as he was one who stood up to tyranny. He continues to teach this, whereas there is doubt as to the rally itself. What are the principles Carver taught are unchangeable, immovable.

Moshe led the Egyptian slaves and taught you to say, “You are cruel and sadistic, get out of my face.” You are being asked to stand up to tyranny and leave the room. This is all that is new. Your question perhaps is, “All this is so new. Where do we go from here?”

Two originally Negroid gospel tunes are listed. This music was actually not Negroid but by the Cincinnati Pops Orchestra with Erich Kunzel.

DEPUTY ANDY: It is what B.B. King said to Michael Jackson, is it not? That you go forward not backward. You use the instruments of the orchestra was what he said to do, and this you did not do.

ANDREA of Chicago: The Cincinnati Orchestra uses this Negroid music. This music reached the National Standard. Yet originally it was Negroid music.

DEPUTY AMOS: What happened? It was that you lost the image, the high image of yourself being the Christed being that you are. You only saw yourself going to the back of the bus, you could not see yourself as carrying on the highest culture.

DEPUTY ANDY: What happened was that you had not been taught otherwise. See how it is that Harriett Beecher was a white Christian who was married to a pastor in the North and sought to free the Negroids and wrote Uncle Tom’s Cabin explaining to the world in literature that the Negroids were Christians. Instead, the ghetto image is what is prominent today by choice and such beliefs were to degrade this book to say the Negroid is the ghetto class when had you gone ahead and adopted this, you would have commanded the best jobs, the best living in neighborhoods and the best education.

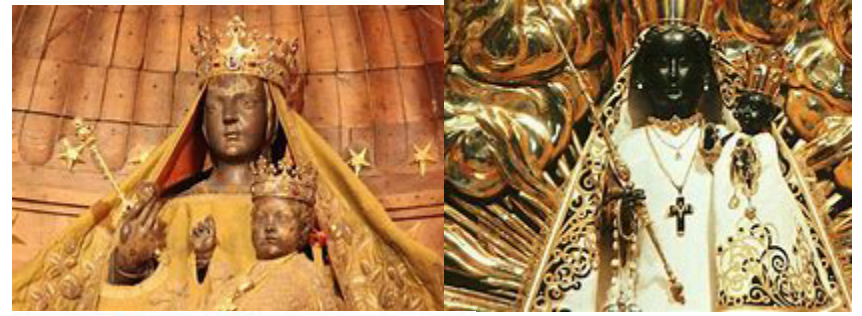

You have not sought to be of the best class! You have even named yourself African-Americans when you are of a higher class! If you had said: we are Negroid gospel singers. Or we are Negroid Christians and Baptists which are the purest as we come from the Puritans, you see this is the image that will win the jobs and neighborhoods for you.

George Washington Carver: You must look squarely at the image that you are producing. Is it the highest? The history has been that the Negroid image has actually gone down since Michael Jackson through the rap jungle [hell-sounds.]

NANCY of Oregon: If you went to hell, believe me, this is what it sounds like in hell!

George Washington Carver: What will the future hold is ever anon the same—it is the Christ standard. Christ is the answer.

Here are some photos of the black Madonna. There are miracles around the black Madonnas.

DEPUTY ANDY: It is only you who can produce those miracles by striving for the highest ideal and imagery.

NANCY of Oregon: It is rare to see of the races, a Negroid underlining the Bible in public. Even the Filipino will be seen to read the Catholic Catechism.

ANDREA of Chicago: We speak to all those who did not attend college. You would be best to get your “master’s” degree from Mother Mary! If you would take the English lessons that Father Malachi has given for you to do, if you would practice the Presence of God lessons that Father Malachi gives from time to time such as in early this New Years, you are in the highest league of education. Even the Sage of Omaha, one of the richest men on earth said, “I would hire a Christian any day over a business educated person.”

NANCY of Oregon: You command the highest jobs when you are a Christian.

ANDREA of Chicago: So for example, let us say, you are one of the organizers for the Catholics, you are a Baptist, and you will help them remove the pedophiles from the Churches. This is what the employers are looking for.

They will not even ask you for a degree as they trust you as you show integrity.

DEPUTY ANDY: However, if you do nothing again and again as you feel you need a strong leader such as Reverend Martin Luther King before you do anything, you will stay at this level.

DEPUTY AMOS: It is working in piety that you must be about now.

NANCY of Oregon: A Catholic might approach you. And you keep to yourself, saying, “We’re non-denominational”.

JESUS CHRIST: You do not see yourself as a part of the larger community. Your language is different. Your skin color is different.

MOTHER MARY: There is the Christ language! You would adopt for no other reason except that it is the highest language that all might speak.

George Washington Carver: You see how Martin Luther King knew this himself. To become a reverend.

Typist: It has to be said though that although the rally could have turned violent, that he himself was ready to turn the cheek when the Negroids themselves came up to him, perhaps they were paid by mafia, to call off the rally. Maybe it was the Islamic Brotherhood, I do not know, but he would not engage in violence with the Moslems which Malcolm X never had this opportunity and was murdered by Islam. And Martin Luther King did turn the other cheek and did not engage in a fist-fight with them though provoked. He simply recalled scripture. He lived by what he understood as Jesus Christ.

JESUS CHRIST: It was not the White people who threatened him before he gave his speech, it was the Negroids.

DEPUTY ANDY: Thus you see how it is, what Harriett Beecher could have done for you, you do not follow but instead, follow the most forceful and perhaps violent of the race, and you are clearly mistaken.

JESUS CHRIST: That is not the meaning of this scripture:

- To turn the other cheek
- To love your enemies.

However, you can see that a Christian faith does nevertheless bring about a great rallying of the spirit of Christ that he did go forward.

FATHER MALACHI: That is what the modern reporters say.

What had happened is that King was challenged by 4 Negroid groups. The Islamic faction surrounded him, said this is no good for Islam, and pushed him and he called to Jesus Christ. They finally left after he kept repeating the words,

“May the Peace of Christ abound in you.”

“May the Peace of Christ be with you” and so on.

This was what he heard from Jesus to say. The Moslems went out to incite violence among the Negroids and so they did call the police.

The other Negroid groups said he needed to call off the rally as they did not want to be involved with Washington D.C. to be clubbed in the deep South. King again stood his ground and prayed aloud to Jesus Christ. His wife disbanded these as she said to each of the groups, “Jesus Christ is here. You will have to deal with him”. And they left.

JESUS CHRIST: These were difficult and trying times. He was a young man. You see how it was, that he relied on being a preacher himself. He had the language to speak on the “peace of Christ” and he knew to pray.

MOTHER MARY: It is this Presence that is the strength of yours.

DEPUTY AMOS: Those who live by the sword, die by the sword. It is the task before you then, that you look squarely at the highest image you can produce of yourself.

Martin Luther: This was a risky rally nevertheless. And you would recognize this. Had it turned out to be a rout, because those very “Brotherhood” Negroids had incited violence, history would have turned out much more difficult for the Negroids.

And it would have been diabolical.

It is the same as what happened to me. I said the Jews needed “to be razed who profaned the Blessed Mother”, and I was quoted as seeking the extermination of the Jews and to be of Nazism to raze the Jews! You have little understanding of how bad this could have turned out to be.

GEORGE FOX: We have spoken of the practice of the Presence of Christ. This imaging work that you do is a part of this working of Christ Light forming of who you are, as a person, and as a race.
