

Reality Check

Outlook: This is the United States. Not Rome. You as a corporation must give accounting to both the shareholders and the public as what your company does. The financial statements are audited in the United States!

Commentary: Fraud is illegal. Misrepresentation of facts is illegal.

NANCY of Oregon: What you have at present is a dishonest set of cooked books.

ANDREA of Chicago: If the people of the United States and the Catholic laity were to find out the true accounting, they would sue the Catholic Church in Rome.

FATHER MALACHI: What you have is an Assessment charge to the dioceses in the United States and the dioceses must pay this. The more is for international issues, not for national issues.

NANCY of Oregon: The bishops are not allowed to talk about giving social security to the priests near retirement, increasing their salaries.

JESUS CHRIST: The Assessment Charge is for feeding the illegal aliens through Catholic Charities.

NANCY of Oregon: We asked Martin Luther about this. He agrees that this is the same as the indulgences. It will be still be about money.

Martin Luther: Why would you pay for something you do not want such as the illegal immigrants coming through the South border, especially when the occupied homes of the people in the South has been denounced by Mother Mary?

NANCY of Oregon: Martin Luther says this is the same Catholic Church he had to deal with. Will they change? No.

NANCY of Oregon: The money is for the sending of Mexicans who claim to be priests but are entering in this way that Mother Mary and Jesus has asked to be ex-communicated, Copyright © Gospel of Christ Mission 2018 as you see from the confession letters during the Winter season of 2017.

ANDREA of Chicago: These Mexicans come here with the motto “We want to kill as many Americans as we are able.”

NANCY of Oregon: But he said that the United States is different. They have the freedom of religion. They have the freedom of speech. They have the courts. The media will do much of the work for the Catholics. It is a national issue, of national concern who is feeding these scum.

This is just as what stopped the pedophile situation. The mothers were angry and by themselves would go to the courts.

FATHER MALACHI: You see below how the bishops are chosen. Add then to this list the acceptance of the pedophile situation perhaps.

Martin Luther: It is not possible to fight this except through the courts. That this is illegal accounting—hiding it as if it were a footnote on a financial statement called the Assessment Charge! The people do not know and would not want to pay for what they do not believe in. But they simply do not know what they are paying for in the Assessment Charge to their diocese.

The set of circumstances is quite the same as what happened in the Protestant Revolution. You have the fascist control over the purse of the Catholics and it is not justified that they feed the illegal aliens and insurgents as the agenda that the United States bishops are forced to adhere to.

FATHER MALACHI: The bishops of the United States say that the laity, the Catholics, will not pay for anything if they do not want to. This is different than Rome. And primarily the bishops hold their meetings to “comment” on American politics. And the bishops and priests have no say as to how they run the Church.

FATHER STRONG: Here you see why this sign was made, as indeed the US Catholic bishops are forced to take on the agenda of the Democratic National Committee.

FATHER MALACHI: It is so declared in the Catholic Church’s Bishops Conferences.

Commentary: However what she is saying is, this is accounting fraud and full disclosure is not in the way they are funding illegal aliens and insurgents to come through the Mexican border who do not have intentions to be Catholic but to take over the nation under NAFTA.

Commentary: Mother Mary has already complained that the Mexicans come over the Southern border, take up the homes. You can well imagine there will be a Catholic priest in there, can you not?

A Flock Of Shepherds

Thomas Reese SJ, 1992

[In the choosing of bishops], the questions (of item 6) indicate the Vatican is looking for priests who adhere "with conviction and loyalty to the doctrine and magisterium of the Church." It asks about "the attitude of the candidate toward documents of the Holy See on the Ministerial Priesthood, on the priestly ordination of women, on the Sacrament of Matrimony, on sexual ethics, and on social justice." The questions on church discipline also stress "Loyalty and docility to the Holy Father, the Apostolic See, and the Hierarchy; esteem for and acceptance of priestly celibacy; respect for and observance of the general and particular norms governing divine worship and clerical attire."

Correct thinking on doctrine and church discipline is desired not only for a bishop of a diocese but for a member of the bishops' conference. A priest supporting the ordination of women, optional priestly celibacy, or birth control would not be made a bishop. Neither would a priest opposed to the teaching of the church on social justice. It is no wonder then that the National Conference of Catholic Bishops has taken the positions it has. Its membership has been expertly vetted before appointment. Having an unorthodox bishop is even less likely than having a Communist in the CIA.

JESUS CHRIST: The bishops are chosen for this criteria. It does not change year upon year, Vatican II or not. This then is what the leadership of the bishops are dealing with.
