

Reality Check

Defining Rock-n-Roll To Mean Strength

NANCY of Oregon: What we are imploring you to do, is to be considerate of the music, that you try and stay as close as you can to the national standard in creating music. That you try to see the eras before the 1960s of rebellion. Certainly rock-n-roll had a different meaning. It did not mean the same as drug-hippie dropouts. It was often the power and strength of a Brenda Lee.

Typist: How I came to listen to Brenda Lee was a military man who had stationed in Europe through the cold war. He had every one of her songs. You hear the strength.

MOTHER MARY: This was the music we had used at the Northwest company. The President of the US had ordered 100 rapings of our young women in the handover of the US to Hong Kong by saying how corrupt the US nation was. We gave them exercises to dance, and to stomp out the sexual abuse.

NOSTREDAME: It is a part of the Red China culture, to rape the teens. We have shown you the population explosion charts. These are of teens being raped at the agricultural communes and other commune work places.

Typist: The 100 rapings turned out to be 75 because the Washington DC entourage got out of hand. The on-site supervisor of the rapings got a gun. She aimed it at this DC entourage and said, this is going to go orderly! I will use this gun on you if you get out of hand." She stopped at 75 and said, "That's enough for Washington DC. That should satisfy them.

MOTHER MARY: They have met again as a support group.

Typist: That was Annie Got-Your-Gun. She was killed. But Annie called upon Mother Mary for help. Mother Mary told her to say, "Rubber carrot. Rubber carrot. Next." The idea was that there would be entry, not mauling and the end of the rape, and for Annie to say, "Next. Next! Get going! Next!"

What was extremely evil about this was that one of the DC entourage had his own children. He personally raped them 24 times each to make of them prostitutes for governors, generals, etc. in our country for Red China. The FBI followed their case and knew all the counseling could not undo this great horror. To have been thrown to the lions.