

The TEACHING
of the
CATHOLIC CHURCH

A Summary of Catholic Doctrine
arranged and edited by
CANON GEORGE D. SMITH, D.D., Ph.D.

Volume II

NEW YORK
THE MACMILLAN COMPANY
1949

ANALYTICAL LIST OF CONTENTS

XIX—THE MYSTICAL BODY OF CHRIST

By the Right Rev. Mgr. Canon E. MYERS, M.A.

	PAGE
§ i. The Holy Catholic Church The Church the Mystical Body of Christ—Visible and invisible elements in the Church—The relation between them	659
§ ii. The Doctrine revealed Teaching of Christ—Teaching of St Paul—A twofold solidarity—The Fathers	662
§ iii. The Doctrine Explained The term—Meaning of the Mystical Body of Christ—Vital influence of Christ—Likeness of members to Head—Union with Christ by charity— Christ lives in the Church—Holy Ghost the Soul of the Mystical Body .	667
§ iv. The Mystical Body and Redemption The Fall and Redemption—St Thomas on Redemption and the Mystical Body—On Baptism and Incorporation—Body and Soul of the Church .	673
§ v. The Sacrifice of the Mystical Body Redemption and Sacrifice—The Mass the Sacrifice of the Mystical Body—Christ, Head and members, offers the sacrifice—Christ, Head and members, the victim—Sacrificial attitude of mind	678
§ vi. The Mystical Body and Holy Communion Union with Christ consummated by Holy Communion—Nature of this union—The sacrament of the Mystical Body—Eucharist and Baptism —Union of the faithful through the Eucharist	681
§ vii. The Communion of Saints and its consequences Meaning of the term—Veneration of the Saints—Intercession of the Saints—Relics and Images—Indulgences	685
§ viii. Conclusion	688

XX—THE CHURCH ON EARTH

By Dom AELRED GRAHAM, O.S.B., S.T.L.

Introductory Note	691
Part I : THE CATHOLIC CHURCH : THE SOCIETY OF THE REDEEMED
§ i. Corporate Fall—Corporate Redemption Remote origins of the Church—The fact of sin—The Incarnation—The Mystical Body of Christ	691
§ ii. Christ the Founder of the Church The Church born from the death of Christ—Three successive stages in the formation of the Church	693
§ iii. The Relation between Christ and the Church Christ the Head of the Church—Christ's influence upon the Church—His love for it—The Holy Spirit and the Church—The Church modelled on Christ—Co-operation between Head and members	695
§ iv. The Church : a vital Organism Diversity of function among the Church's members—The Sacraments .	699
§ v. The Visible Characteristics of the Church The Church a visible society—Hostility to this doctrine—The Church and mysticism—The Church's unity—holiness—catholicity—apostolicity	701
§ vi. Membership The conditions of membership—Sin does not exclude from membership —Excommunication, apostasy, heresy, schism—Non-Catholics in good faith—The "soul" and "body" of the Church—Membership by desire—Necessity of belonging to the Church explicitly	706

VI THE TEACHING OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

	PAGE
Part II : THE JURIDICAL STRUCTURE OF THE CHURCH
§ vii. Preliminary : The Authority of the Church
The inner life of the Church and its outward structure inseparable—
The powers conferred by Christ on his Church	710
(a) Doctrinal Authority
The infallible magisterium of the Church—The nature of infallibility—
Its scope	711
(b) Jurisdictional Authority
Legislative authority—Judicial authority—Coercive authority	714
§ viii. The Pope : Vicar of Christ
St Peter's Primacy—Peter's office continued in the Pope—Primacy of jurisdiction—Papal infallibility—The Pope's non-infallible teaching—
His jurisdictional authority—The Pope representative, not successor, of Christ	716
§ ix. The Bishops : Successors of the Apostles
Christ's commission to his Apostles—The Bishops' powers—Other Prelates in the Church—The Bishops' doctrinal authority—Their jurisdictional authority—Pastors of souls	721
§ x. Councils of the Church
Councils in the Church—Oecumenical or General Councils—Those who take part—Conciliar decisions—The function of a General Council	724
§ xi. Church and State
The teaching of Leo XIII—The sphere of the Church's authority—
" Mixed matters "—The Authority of the State—Power of the Church in political and social orders—Harmony between Church and State—
Concordats	726
Epilogue
Indefectibility of the Church—The Church lives by the Holy Spirit
—The full and objective will of Christ can only be fulfilled in the Church	730

XXI—THE SACRAMENTAL SYSTEM

By the Rev. C. C. MARTINDALE, S.J.

§ i. Man's Approach to God
Composite nature of man—Man's knowledge of God—Worship.	733
§ ii. God's descent to man
God reveals himself through visible things—The Incarnation—The work of salvation incarnational : The sacraments	736
§ iii. The Sacramental System
Early developments—Signs—Causes—The sacramental system	739
§ iv. The Theology of the Sacraments
The Sacraments are signs—Matter and form—The Sacraments causes—
Causes of sanctification—Christ their author—Pagan mystery-cults—
The minister of the Sacraments—Intention of the minister—Dispositions of the recipient—Obstacles to grace—Effects " ex opere operantis "
—The character—The Sacraments and " magic "—Synopsis of the teaching of the Council of Trent	744
§ v. Recapitulation	758

XXII—THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

By the Rev. JOHN P. MURPHY, D.D., Ph.D.

§ i. Introductory
Baptism shown to be a Sacrament	767
§ ii. The Sacrament of Baptism
The sacrament—The matter—Blessing of water—Immersion—Infusion —The form—Grace of Baptism—The Character—Membership of the Church	768

§ iii. The necessity of Baptism Indispensable for salvation—Heresies on this point—The Fathers—No substitute for Baptism—Two equivalents—Martyrdom—Charity : Baptism of desire—Summary	776
§ iv. The Minister of Baptism Valid minister, anyone—Validity of heretical baptism—Even the un- baptised can baptise—Ordinary lawful minister, priest or bishop—Some instructions	785
§ v. The Subject of Baptism Conditions for valid reception—For lawful reception—The teaching of Scripture and Tradition—The "revival" of Baptism unworthily received —Infant Baptism—God-parents	791
§ vi. Summary	797

XXIII—THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

By the Rev. G. D. SMITH, D.D., Ph.D.

§ i. The Sacrament of Maturity Confirmation the complement of Baptism—Conferring, not full super- natural growth—Nor the power of growth—Nor supernatural nourish- ment—Nor, specifically, the power of resistance to temptation—But the power to fulfil one's public duty as a Christian—The child in the life of grace—The adult in the life of grace—The duty of bearing witness —The strong and perfect Christian—The Sacrament of the Holy Spirit	803
§ ii. The Spirit of Testimony "Qui locutus est per prophetas"—In the prophets of old—In the im- mediate heralds of the Messias—In the Saviour himself—Jesus anointed to preach the gospel—The Apostles sent to continue the work—Promise of the Spirit to the Apostles—Their need of the Spirit—They are warned to await the Spirit—The promise fulfilled at Pentecost—External phenomena and inner working of the Spirit—Essential effect of the coming of the Spirit—All the faithful must bear the burden of witness— The task of witness will be hard—The Spirit promised to all the faithful —The Spirit granted to all the faithful	807
§ iii. The Sacrament in Scripture A sacrament of Confirmation antecedently probable—The sacramental system—Abnormal conditions of the primitive Church—Supra-sacra- mental Confirmation : e.g. Pentecost ; the case of Cornelius—The normal procedure : the Samaritans—A comment of St Cyprian—Simon Magus and the efficacy of the rite—The disciples at Ephesus—Always essentially the same grace—The grace of the Spirit distinct from the grace of Baptism—Complementary to it—The special outlook of St Luke—The grace of the Spirit conferred by a special rite and by a special minister	814
§ iv. The Sacrament in Tradition Confirmation and Martyrdom—The rudimentary age of sacramental theology—Two distinct questions—The Sacrament of Confirmation in Tertullian—St Cyprian—St Jerome—St Cyril of Jerusalem—The Sacramentary of Serapion—Innocent I—Confirmation always ad- ministered in the history of the Church—Heresies concerning Con- firmation—History of the "proximate matter" of the Sacrament— What is generally admitted—The early centuries : Imposition of hands —Or anointing?—The post-baptismal anointing—The Holy Spirit in Baptism and Confirmation—A natural development—The question of "immediate institution"—A less restricted view—The institution of Confirmation	820
§ v. The administration of the Sacrament The rite in the West to-day—Essential rite : the anointing with the accompanying words—Is the anointing also an imposition of hands?— The rich symbolism of this rite—Ordinary minister : the Bishop—Differ- ence of practice between East and West—Priests as extraordinary ministers —A theological problem—Recipient of Confirmation—Infant Confirma- tion valid	829

§ vi. The Effects of the Sacrament	PAGE
The sacramental character—The character of Confirmation—The grace of Confirmation—The fruitful reception of the Sacrament—The age at which Confirmation should be administered—Conclusion	834
Additional Note : On the Extraordinary Minister of Confirmation	838

XXIV—THE SACRAMENT OF THE EUCHARIST

By the Rev. G. D. SMITH, D.D., Ph.D.

§ i. Introductory
Sacrifice and Sacrament	839
§ ii. The Eucharistic Dogma
The teaching of the Council of Trent summarised	841
§ iii. The Eucharist in Scripture
The Promise of the Eucharist—The Last Supper—The teaching of St Paul	844
§ iv. The Eucharist in Tradition
St Ignatius of Antioch—St Justin—St Irenaeus—Tertullian—St Cyprian—Origen; St Cyril of Jerusalem—St John Chrysostom—General considerations on the Fathers	850
§ v. Transubstantiation
Transubstantiation and the Real Presence—The doctrine in Scripture and Tradition—Transubstantiation and philosophy—Substance and accidents—Unique character of this change—"Concomitance"—The appearances that remain	857
§ vi. The Eucharistic Presence
The Thomistic synthesis—Substantial presence—Christ whole and entire under every part of either species—The presence of the dimensions of Christ—An imperfect analogy—Consequences of this mode of presence	863
§ vii. The Sacrament and its use
The Eucharist a "permanent" sacrament—The matter—The form—What constitutes the "sacrament"?—Reservation and adoration—Conditions of lawful reception—State of grace—The natural fast—Reception under one kind	867
§ viii. The Effects of the Sacrament
The Sacrament of the divine life—Union with Christ—The Eucharist and the other Sacraments—Sacramental grace of the Eucharist—The fervour of charity—Other effects—The necessity of the Eucharist—Frequent Communion	872

XXV—THE EUCHARISTIC SACRIFICE

By the Rev. B. V. MILLER, D.D., Ph.D.

§ i. Introductory
A General Notion of Sacrifice	880
§ ii. The Sacrifice of the Mass in the Sacred Scriptures
The Last Supper—The prophecy of Malachy—Priesthood according to the order of Melchisedech	881
§ iii. The Sacrifice of the Mass in Catholic Tradition
St Cyprian—Tertullian—St Irenaeus—St Justin—Still earlier references	886
§ iv. The Attack upon the Mass
The Protestant attack on the Mass—The Council of Trent—Matters of debate	893
§ v. Theological Theories and Speculations
The essential part of the Mass—The theory of "destruction"—A subtle variant—The theory that the Supper and Calvary form numerically one sacrifice—A further theory—Oneness of faith and difference of view	897
§ vi. Those who offer the Sacrifice of the Mass
Christ offers—The Church and its members offer—Various degrees of participation—The Priest—Those who provide the stipend—Those present at Mass—Our share in Christ's victimhood	901

	PAGE
§ vii. The Ends for which the Mass is offered Praise and Thanksgiving—Propitiation—Impetration	907
§ viii. The Fruits of the Sacrifice Difference between sacrifice and sacrament—How sins are forgiven through the Mass—Remission of punishment—For the faithful de- parted—Limitation of fruits—Are they produced infallibly?—Who are excluded from them ?	911
§ ix. Supplementary Communion—The Epiiclesis	917

XXVI—SIN AND REPENTANCE

By the Rev. E. J. MAHONEY, D.D.

§ i. Introduction The purpose of human existence—The supernatural state—The Re- demption of Christ—The eternal law of God—The natural law—Defini- tion of sin	919
§ ii. Mortal Sin The end of the law—Sin the rejection of God—Distinction of sins— Grave matter—Advertence and consent—Temptation	925
§ iii. The State of Sin Guilt and stain—Debt of eternal punishment—Temporal punishment— Human nature wounded—Other consequences	929
§ iv. Repentance Initial divine movement—Detestation of sin—Purpose of amendment and satisfaction—Qualities of true repentance and amendment—Necessity of repentance	934
§ v. Perfect Contrition Connection with the Sacrament of Penance—Perfect love of God— Imperfect love of God—How to make an act of perfect contrition.	940
§ vi. Venial Sin A sin consistent with grace and charity—Effects—Remission	945
§ vii. Reparation	952

XXVII—THE SACRAMENT OF PENANCE

By the Rev. H. HARRINGTON, M.A.

§ i. Introductory Penance and the Christian life	955
§ ii. The Sacrament in Scripture The power of the keys—Power of forgiving sin—A judicial power, re- quiring confession—Universal power—Permanent power—Granted only to priests—Necessary power—Some objections	957
§ iii. The Sacrament in Tradition Comparative silence of early centuries—Clement of Rome— Pastor of Hermas—Tertullian—The Montanist heresy	962
§ iv. The Matter of the Sacrament The acts of the penitent—Contrition—Confession—Secret confession in history—Nature and extent of the obligation—Satisfaction	970
§ v. Indulgences Meaning—Doctrinal bases—History—Kinds and conditions	976
§ vi. The Form of the Sacrament and its Minister The form—The form in early times—The minister—Jurisdiction— Reservation—Judge, physician, teacher—The seal of the confessional	980
§ vii. The Effects and Use of the Sacrament Effects—Practical use of the Sacrament	986

XXVIII—EXTREME UNCTION

By the Rev. J. P. ARENDZEN, D.D., Ph.D., M.A.

	PAGE
§ i. Introductory	990
§ ii. The Institution of the Sacrament Unction as practised by the Apostles—The text of St James' Epistle— Rare early references—Tertullian—Origen—Aphraates—Chrysostom— St Bede—Extra-sacramental use of blessed oil—Distinct from sacramental use—Faith of the Church in this Sacrament	991
§ iii. The Administration of the Sacrament Ordinary minister—Eastern practice—The anointings—The form— The consecrated oil—Circumstances of administration—Delay in ad- ministration—Obligation of receiving the sacrament—Repeated ad- ministration—Intention of the recipient—Conditional administration— Danger of death—Operations—The validity of repeated administration .	1001
§ iv. The Effects of Extreme Unction Remission of guilt—"Habitual" sorrow necessary—Venial sin—The "remnants" of sin—Temporal punishment—Spiritual strength—A theological discussion—Restoration of bodily health—The "revival" of the sacrament	1011

XXIX—THE SACRAMENT OF ORDER

By the Very Rev. Mgr. Canon C. CRONIN, D.D.

§ i. The Priesthood of Christ and the Christian Priesthood	1022
§ ii. The Threefold Power of the Church. The Power and Character of Order Jurisdiction in general—Spiritual and supernatural jurisdiction— Teaching authority and power of Order—The Sacrament of Order—The Character of Order	1025
§ iii. The Apostolic Ordinations and the Ecclesiastical Hierarchy Acts of the Apostles—Pauline Epistles—Hierarchy of jurisdiction— Hierarchy of Order—Twofold mission of Apostolic office—Establishment of Monarchical Episcopate—St John—St Paul—Clement of Rome and St Ignatius of Antioch—Bishops succeed Apostles in ordinary mission—Divine constitution of the Church	1031
§ iv. The One Priesthood: The Episcopate and the Presbyterate One Priesthood—Pre-eminence of Episcopate in power of Order— Distinctive power of Episcopate—Two ranks in one Order—Sacramental nature of Episcopate and Presbyterate—One Sacrament	1042
§ v. The Inferior or Ministerial Orders The Diaconate—In the New Testament—In the Apostolic Fathers— Office and divine institution of Diaconate—An interesting suggestion— The Subdiaconate and the Minor Orders	1047
§ vi. The Matter and Form of Order Common ground in the controversy—The tradition of the instruments —The Church and the "substance" of the sacraments—Another view —Sacramental efficacy of the imposition of hands—Anglican Orders— Sacramental efficacy of the tradition of instruments	1053
§ vii. The Minister and the Recipient of Order	1059
Note on Clerical Celibacy	1060

XXX—CHRISTIAN MARRIAGE

By the Rev. E. J. MAHONEY, D.D.

§ i. The Sacrament of Matrimony A Type of Christ and the Church—A sacrament—The contract is the sacramental sign—The ministers—Sacramental grace—The power of Church and State	1062
§ ii. The Marriage Contract Its object and essential properties—Unity of marriage—Polygamy— Second marriages—Consent—Ignorance—Error—Fear or violence .	1070

§ iii. Marriage Laws
Tridentine form— Ne Temere —Priest and witnesses—Cases of necessity—Civil formalities—Engagement—Banns—Closed times	1075
§ iv. The Impediments
Diriment : Abduction—Age—Impotence—Relationship—Previous Marriage—Order and Vow—Difference of worship—Crime— Prohibiting : Vow—Adoption—Mixed religion—Unworthiness—Dispensations.	1080
§ v. Matrimonial Obligations
Preparation—Parental consent—The marriage debt—Birth prevention	1084
§ vi. Divorce
Natural law—Matthew xix—Separation—Pauline privilege—Non-consummated marriage—Nullity decrees—Conclusion	1092

XXXI—DEATH AND JUDGEMENT

By Abbot ANSCAR VONIER, O.S.B.

§ i. The Cause of Death
Physiological aspect of death—Death natural but penal—Death and the immortal soul	1101
§ ii. Death and the Supernatural Order
Death and predestination—Satisfaction of divine justice: Martyrdom—Death the end of spiritual progress	1105
§ iii. The Provisional nature of Death
Destruction of death by Christ: the Resurrection—Immortality even for the reprobate	1108
§ iv. The Death of the Son of God
The death of Christ exemplary—Devotion to the death of Christ—Difference of his death from ours	1110
§ v. Man's Soul at Death
Christian immortality embraces the whole man—Spirituality of the soul—The testimony of the Church—Of the human race—Immortality in the Old Testament	1112
§ vi. The State of the Human Soul after Death
The disembodied soul—Only the immaterial remains—Intellect and will—Executive powers—An incomplete substance	1114
§ vii. The Intercourse of the Living with the Dead
Necromancy in the Old Testament—Natural power of spirits to communicate with man—Discarnate spirits—The divine ordinance—Modern spiritism	1118
§ viii. The Judge of the Living and the Dead
God's judicial power—Present as well as future—Temporal and eternal judgements	1122
§ ix. The Temporal Judgement
Christ the present judge—Purgatory	1127
§ x. The Eternal Judgement of Individual Souls
Particular judgement—Of the elect—Of the reprobate—Degrees of punishment	1131
§ xi. The Last Judgement
Its catastrophic nature—A unique event—Four manifestations—Christ judges—The elect judge—Christ's alleged eschatological obsession—Millenarism	1134

XXXII—PURGATORY, OR THE CHURCH SUFFERING

By Dom J. B. McLAUGHLIN, O.S.B.

§ i. Pardon and Penance
Penance follows pardon—Suffering needed for atonement and for cleansing—How suffering cleanses—Penance after death	1141
§ ii. The Pains of Purgatory
The love in Purgatory—The pain of deferment—Positive punishments	1148

	PAGE
§ iii. The State of the Suffering Souls
The souls suffer willingly—They do not merit—They do not sin— Forgiveness of venial sin—Duration of Purgatory	1154
§ iv. Purgatory in Tradition and Scripture
Tradition—The Church's practice to-day—Witness of the early Church —Holy Scripture—Private revelations	1159
§ v. Intercession for the Souls in Purgatory
We share God's love for others—Mutual intercession—Indulgences for the dead—The Church's prayers for the dead—Masses for the dead	1169

XXXIII—ETERNAL PUNISHMENT

By the Rev. J. P. ARENDZEN, D.D., Ph.D., M.A.

§ i. Introductory
Punishment—Retributive punishment—Its connection with sin	1176
§ ii. The Nature of Eternal Punishment
Loss of the Beatific Vision—The chief punishment of hell—The loss definitive—Its grievous nature—The pain of sense—Positive torment —Real fire, not metaphorical—Various views concerning its nature— Hell a place—Warning against imaginative descriptions—Degrees of punishment	1178
§ iii. Eternal Punishment in Scripture
The Old Testament—The New Testament	1190
§ iv. Eternal Punishment in Tradition
Continuous and clear testimony as to existence and eternity of hell— Question of postponement till final judgement—Question of possible cessation—Origen—Teaching of the Church on the nature of the pains of hell	1197
§ v. Eternal Punishment and Reason
Eternal sanction reasonable—God's mercy and the eternity of hell— Hell and the sanctity of God—Annihilation no sanction—Common objections answered	1200
§ vi. Special Questions relating to Eternal Punishment
"The undying worm"—The devils and the damned—Time in hell— Diminution of punishment?—The case of those raised from the dead— The relation of the damned to those on earth—Spiritism—Hell and the Divine Wisdom	1205

XXXIV—THE RESURRECTION OF THE BODY

By Dom JUSTIN McCANN, O.S.B., M.A.

§ i. Introductory	1211
§ ii. The Position and Meaning of the Doctrine
The soul before the general judgement—The Last Day—Man a compound of body and soul—Their reunion after death	1213
§ iii. The Bodily Resurrection reasonable
Essential union of body and soul—The Incarnation—Christian theology incarnational—The ultimate felicity of man	1215
§ iv. The Bodily Resurrection miraculous
Not self-contradictory but beyond the powers of nature—Scientific objections—The cause of the resurrection is the divine omnipotence	1218
§ v. The Testimony of Holy Scripture in General
Indications in the Old Testament—Clearly taught in the Gospels— Not a mere "spiritual" resurrection—The Resurrection of Christ	1220
§ vi. The Testimony of St. Paul
Christ's resurrection and ours—The manner of the resurrection—An analogy—"Spiritual" body	1224
§ vii. The Testimony of Tradition
Creeds and Councils—Apostolic Fathers—Athenagoras—Irenaeus— The scholastic theologians	1228

§ viii. In the Same Bodies
Identity of bodily substance: the common view—Two rival views— Spiritual and vital identity—Atomic identity—The majority view— The authority of the Fathers	1232
§ ix. Objections and another View
“The indifference of the atom”—The circulation of matter—Meta- bolism—The view of Durand and Billot—Critique—Conclusion	1238
§ x. The Risen Body
Work of theologians on the subject—The resurrection of the reprobate— Immortality and incorruptibility—Impassibility—Clarity—Subtlety— Agility—Dominance of soul over body—Preservation of the glorified body—The Beatific Vision and the glorified body	1242

XXXV—HEAVEN, OR THE CHURCH TRIUMPHANT

By the Rev. J. P. ARENDZEN, D.D., Ph.D., M.A.

§ i. Introductory	1248
§ ii. The Vision of God the Satisfaction of the Mind
The essence of heaven—The Joy of the Beatific Vision—Its supernatural character—Nature of the Beatific Vision—The Light of Glory	1249
§ iii. The Love of God the Satisfaction of the Will
Embrace of God by knowledge and love—Mutual love—No selfishness —The love of the Blessed for themselves—Complete satisfaction— Repose in intense activity—Heaven is “life”	1256
§ iv. Secondary Sources of Happiness in Heaven
Christ in his Human Nature—Mary, the Angels, and the Saints—The wonders of Creation—The glorification of the body	1261
§ v. Implications of Life in Heaven
Heaven a kingdom—Heaven a place—The ties of kinship in heaven— Degrees of happiness—The Blessed and those on earth—The Blessed and the reprobate	1266
§ vi. The Blessed before the General Judgement
Millenarism—Felicity before the Resurrection—Question of the deferment of the Beatific Vision—John XXII and Benedict XII—The “souls under the altar”—Beatific Vision immediately after death	1275
Appendix —The seven heavens	1281

INDEX	1283
-----------------	------

NIHIL OBSTAT : EDVARDVS CAN. MAHONEY, S.T.D.
CENSOR DEPVTATVS

IMPRIMATVR : E. MORROGH BERNARD
VICARIVS GENERALIS

WESTMONASTERII : DIE X IVNII MCMXLVII

Copyright, 1927, 1928, 1929, 1930, 1931, and 1948
BY THE MACMILLAN COMPANY

All rights reserved—no part of this book may be reproduced in any form without permission in writing from the publisher, except by a reviewer who wishes to quote brief passages in connection with a review written for inclusion in magazine or newspaper.

First Printing

PRINTED IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA