

Ascended Masters

The coypu resembles a very large rat or a beaver with a small tail. The demon "Narcissist coypu" is one who is in love with himself, his life, his image. It is a destructive path they lead as they take no accountability, for what they do that may hurt another as they do not balance karma. They do not follow the teachings on karma balancing. You have the difficulties now as you are to overcome them that you have a brighter future.

He has many pictures or images of himself that he tries to live by. Facebook is one place that he spends a great deal of time conveying a sculpted message with the photos of himself. It is not used as intended to communicate a timeline, it is to convey this elevated image of a narcissistic he-self, she-self with clothes, smiles and the adornment of events.

In outer clothing, he may have an outfit for every occasion. He has the constant need for attention that a narcissist has. These live to uphold an image whether he be a new-ager or jogger. These live for the images. They want to be seen at their fancied famed events, doing the famed things, appearing as the famed ones.

They are the ones that see themselves as the ballroom gowns and tuxedos on the red carpet event rather than having a real soul. They see themselves as their images that they might continue to promote as who they are. They may want to do the imitation of the famous stars to have that as their repertoire. These are the ones who will participate in a movie star look-a-like contest as they can be that famed image for a day.

He does not live for tomorrow as Christed beings do—to look and live for the holy grail.

They have the nostalgia of self.

They constantly look in the mirror, look at their photographs and image. Have a cell phone that they are seen ably talking. They may hoard clothing and have mounds of clothing in a similar destructive trail that the coypu leaves in looking for food.

They do not live for the future. They live in the past for their image. They cannot foresee that what they do might do injury to themselves and others and they can make karma that they must eventually balance, that is, furthermore for them not another to balance. Not decades into the future but in the immediate future.

Thus such as these can turn to drugs when they see that the karma comes due and they seek a way out of having to balance karma when that image becomes old and is not the one of everlasting youth. It is in the drugs of hallucination that they can keep the bloated image of themselves alive. The "mind blowing" is on, of and for himself.

He is not able to let go of the past as this is the image he holds on to as his identity. Without having this image, he has nothing. These are the ones who will say, oh yes, I was there, I did that. There is no soul at home to experience soul pain at another's suffering. They were only there with the correct outer clothing and had the movie star pose readied for all to take a photograph of them.

It is not exactly ambition although it ambitiousness. They are concerned about their appearance, fame, perfection of the outer. They are distracted into going here and there with no real focus. They do not think through what a direction might take them. They live for image, not for the future, not for karma balancing, not for accountability, not for the ascension, not for eternal life.

A demon-possessed one does not have a soul to live for Christ. He does not long for Christ, he lives for his self-image and name.

These leave a trail of destructivity. It is known of the coypu its destructivity in the wetlands where they work all year round without ever hibernating and go through acres and acres of land digging up the roots of plants for nourishment, that had caused a 800% damage of the wetlands in Louisiana.
