

Ascended Masters

The giant tube worm was unknown to science until researchers exploring the deep Pacific Ocean floor discovered strange, hydrothermal vents. Powered by volcanic heat, these vents re-circulate water that seeps down through cracks or faults in the rock. When the water emerges from the vent, it is rich in chemicals and minerals. This toxic soup of chemicals would be lethal to most animals, so scientists were shocked to find entire ecosystems of animals living around these vents. In spite of the near boiling temperature of the water, these animals were thriving in the complete absence of light. The organisms that live near these vents are unique because, unlike all other living things on earth, they do not depend on sunlight for their source of energy. Instead, they feed in a dependent symbiotic relationship with the minerals in the water of the hydrothermal vents in this thermal ecosystem. These hydrothermal vents are known as "black smokers" because of the dark color of the material they eject.

Perhaps the most noticeable characteristic of these worms is their bright red plume. This is a specialized organ used for exchanging compounds such as oxygen, carbon dioxide, and hydrogen sulphide with the seawater. The bright red color comes from the presence of large amounts of hemoglobin (blood). It is this plume that provides nutrients to the bacteria that live inside the worm. The outer tube of the worm is made from a tough, natural substance called chitin. Chitin is also the main component in the exoskeletons of crabs, lobsters, and shrimp. Although the worms have no eyes, they can sense movement and vibrations and will retreat into their protective tubes when threatened.

The Tubeworm demon is one that lives off the lifeblood of the human no different than the worm. In the human, it is more however, it is also the sacred fire that it lives on. The outer shell that keeps it from being destroyed are the cultural mores that hides their identity. These are parasites that cannot be seen except as these who are the scientists. They can even live in shallow waters unnoticed.

The Tubeworm demon is one that will return throughout ones life once one has had its presence. We told of the astrologer's story of the TV star who went into the pornographic movie industry and not the TV serials that he would have had great fortune in the forecast given. This is that there is a symbiotic relationship—one exists on the other. The demon lives off the person, the person lives off the demon for its own reason for being.

How is it possible to have this as a reason for being?

Yet it is so, that many think procreation is a right, a necessary component of living such as sleep, food and water.

The teachings on the Fall of Man have not been understood. They do not realize that the so-called "need" is a punishment that they would after the Fall of Man, have to re-create form through this means.

Those with this demon may also have it from not finding a way out of a black magic or witchcraft upon their person. Someone desires to control them—they do so with this demon. This demon then is something that makes an idol of coition as pleasure to be sought. The demon will go about promoting this. It will furthermore do what is the profane to show its power over an individual, such as parading around naked in the house while spreading urine all over the body and acting like a king or queen.

It is a lecherous demon. It will touch others to also steal their light through touch and sight. Such terms as "creep" describes this. Also the slut or womanizer is one who goes about stealing light.

In the teachings of drugs, you learned that the exhilaration of drugs is not a true initiation of victory. The adept who understands the path of initiation and mastery can distinguish the difference to know this is a demon.

Those who have had the power-over-the-powerless persecutions whether from a spouse or at work, may have this demon. The rush of energy of power is felt no different than drugs, that no one knows is happening within the confines of privacy.

You see how these animals live by the hydrothermal vents and can be killed on the instant with an earthquake. And this danger to the soul is great. The words of Jesus to keep your lamps trim is not enough when there is a demon of such ferociousness that one is in danger of losing ones life energy and the soul. It is said too of the psychics that by performing psychic healing, they lose their own light, and it is any number of embodiedments before they regain this energy back. It is not easily regained.

We are asked, can these walk the path of Christ after having been in a symbiotic relationship to this demon?

We would say that—this is a matter of choice. There is suffering not to have this demon as one will need to confront the psychological issues that caused this condition. There may be pain. Then there is penance to do as there is karma to take of the light of future embodiedments and give it to the false hierarchy who siphons off this energy from the demon itself. It is a way to serve the false hierarchy by giving it your light. That is the reason why Christians would wear the hair-shirts in order not to give in to this demon, as the battleground of this fight is one of a great loss of light and the servitude becomes one of a mockery of God. The demons can attack a person at night. And they can be fallen angels or fallen ascended masters with demons.

The demon knows of this mockery. And in today's mass media that is a return of the rebellion on Suern, you see that the light in the temple is dissipated no different than on Atlantis and the mockery of the demons towards God. Thus you know that these come back with physical handicaps in subsequent embodiedments.

After persecutions, the demon can cause gender changes. What the demon is doing in this is to have one become so ashamed that they will never return to Christ path. Often you will find that these will represent themselves on Facebook by wearing a Halloween costume or mask as who they are now. This is that they seek to hide by wearing the masks of evil. This is the demon who has found it possible to take over someone on the path. You also see this as those who hide behind going to prostitutes as no one knows of the shame of this symbiotic relationship with the demon.

The Archangels will arrive at ones doorstep to cast out the demon from his person. However it is a matter of choice.
