

Ascended Master

November 25, 2012

The demon "Worker bee" is one who goes through life without any sense of an oneness with Christ being the bride to Christ. The worker bee in a hive is only in a service of the queen bee that he is but a slave in the hive.

The demon has him thinking that he is but a worker bee with no possibility for an interaction with the divine teachers. He neither looks to be where he might meet the divine teacher as in a study of the teachings and scripture. These can spend their next 1,000 embodiments in the same patterns as you see the Hindus who have lost the fire who seek not Christ. These follow those philosophers who go around and around in not finding the Holy Spirit teachings that would spur them to eternal life.

They may have no feelings of awe such as you might in hearing organ music. To them life is as music on a synthesizer that has a metallic grating sound without any possibility for the sense of holiness sensed in the decrees and songs of the Church. They see Gregorian chants as mechanical. They do not experience the higher realms that this music evokes.

He has no sense of Mother Mary or Jesus to be Lord and Savior. He does not look each day for the coming of Christ. Even if he does his decrees, it is without the Holy Spirit. It is a neutering as you might say. There is no longing for the divine savior each day or "love attraction" for this one, the lover of his soul. He does not hear his footsteps of a savior, he does not look for him.

It is an astral density that is felt no differently than Pasadena smog or the forest fires in which one cannot reach up into the etheric levels of ones being. He may see his name flashing on the computer screen to come do the Archangel Michael Assignment and cannot apply it to himself as there is no love-tie to the Archangels.

They must do as one Ascended Master taught: For those of you who have that fire, who contain that fire and would retain more of it, can do so simply by accepting the fullness of the Path and the fullness of the mantle. Meeting all requirements of the four archangels—pinning the four points of the compass and the base of the pyramid—you, then, will find yourself under the aegis of the Lord Sanat Kumara and wearing the mantle of our own authority."

This is a failure of the 9:00 of God Reality and treachery to entertain these demons. One chooses them. The left-handed path of the 9:00 is the 1:00 that one has an enmity with God. These are ancient patterns of pagan rites practiced when the fire on the altar is gone. These are the religions without a fire where they worship forces of nature to have rain for their crops and not Christ. They do not seek the Christ Light. It is all the same to them whether they are doing a decree or song in an alcoholic pub or in church. They cannot sense the higher spheres as the fire is not present.

They must learn to not miss a decree session, not miss their daily decree session. They must in addition look for Christ and savior in their daily initiations, not as a mechanical interpretation but one of scripture. Some of these have a brittleness in analyzing their psychology. They do not have the same remembrance of meeting with the divine one at the etheric Retreats and going over their assignments. They go by the "worker bee" assignments from the outer such as reading the latest psychology book or watching TV shows and not finding the Holy Spirit in church. These are the fringe students so to speak. They do not enter into the Church to do the same scriptural work that involves an emotional interchange with divine beings.

The behavioral change is one of donning the mantle of the Mother of the Flame.
