The Creation God makes man and woman in his likeness. He says: It is not good for man or woman to be alone. I will make each a mate who will be like himself.

Furthermore he says: Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh. And the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

When twin flames were created, it was without shame as there was a loyalty and trust. What shame came about was when the other of ones own body, who had by free will, was no longer to walk in the way of righteousness. This happened after the fall of man. Before then, there were no humans on the earth, there was no ape man evolved into human. But when there had been disobedience and rebellion, man was cast into the earth and took on the incarnation of the human form and had their crystal cord reduced to one-quarter of an inch thus densifying their bodies. Opportunity for evolution slowed, there would follow the creation of birds, fish and creatures once the fall of man had taken place. The intelligence of man was lower than when they were cast out of heaven into the earth. They did not evolve from apes.

In the first three root races, there was the perfection of twin flames. After which in the fourth root race, they lived life in impure ways and were not righteous in their thinking. Twin flames were sent forth in sorrow into the earth. Thus twin flames would become more and more separated forevermore. Twin flames will not always return to one another.

Twin flames went into the opposite direction for a long time and being more and more separated, up to the time that it becomes an impossibility for them to return together as their level of consciousness has not the same in Christ light and attainment.

There came about then not the continual union of twin flames embodiedment after embodiedment but to be united with many soul mates. These find one another to work on the same endeavor together. And instead of having one soul mate, one would find the many soul mates as the mastery of interests are variable.

What one sows, one reaps. With the miscreations of man, there then came about the karmic mate. These are those whom one has made a karma with that one must love. He then learns karmic lessons and moves on. Often there many still be harsh feelings but when the karma is paid, they are free to let the other go in their own separate way.

The memory of the twin flame for some has become a sorrowful separation that they cannot adapt to. Nevertheless on the path of Christ, matrimony is sanctified that the loyalty and trust can be protected. These varied conditions of life then can nevertheless be centered in Christ that one loves one another as oneself. The memory of the twin flame can find meaning when one is wedded to Christ, and purpose in trying to find identity and wholeness.

Creation of Man and Woman

In the old bible, it says God made Adam to fall into a deep sleep, and while he slept, took away one of his ribs and formed it into a woman. They were both naked and yet they were not ashamed before one another.

The twin flame can move away so far in consciousness that one does not recognize that one. One carries this sorrow and it is not in order to lament nor to carry into ones life. Do you long for your twin flame, someone who understands you intimately? Are you naked in that you have not the clothing of wisdom? Are you jealous of others with a close tie and you do not?

Then it is time for you to find the Christ way and no longer pine for what will not return. Walk in the way of Christ and you will find all power. Jesus taught: heaven and earth is given unto me. All love, you will find too—as it is love that brings divine power and God's kingdom on earth and in your life.
