I am Simon Peter writing a letter, addressing those who have obtained precious like faith through the righteousness of God and our Savior Jesus Christ as ourselves the apostles and the disciples.

Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

Our Lord Jesus Christ has revealed to me that I shall soon die. For this reason I am making sure by writing this letter that even after I am gone, you will still remember to hold fast to your calling as chosen ones of God. You who are the keepers of the flame must know that you came with Sanat Kumara to keep the Christ flame and that will continue on even when you ascend into heaven.

In this longsuffering period, there shall be false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring swiftly upon themselves destruction. In the latter days, there will those who will go to their second death, at the return of Sanat Kumara in the burning of the tares sown among the wheat.

The tares after the mission of Jesus Christ would follow their pernicious and evil ways. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of the servants of God: whose judgment will not be for a long time, their damnation slumbereth.

For God spared the angels that sinned, but cast them down to earth, to be reserved unto judgment.

And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly.

And delivered the just, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked: Unto that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, and being vexed in his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds.

The Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished. But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, they do not bring railing accusation against them before the Lord.

But these natural brute beasts, shall be taken and destroyed in the Lord's day after longsuffering, speak evil of the holy things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption.

And the wicked shall receive the karma of unrighteousness, as they count it pleasure to riot in their day. Spots and blemishes they are. While feasting with you, they sport themselves with their own deceptions.

They having eyes full of adultery, cannot cease from sin, beguiling unstable souls with a heart exercised with covetous practices, they curse the children.

They have forsaken the right way and are gone astray, following the way of the fallen angels: Abaddon, Apollyon, Baal, Beelzebub, Belial, Betar, Gomory, Leviathon, Lucifer, Samael, Satan, Semyaza, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

They are rebuked for their iniquity.

For they speak great swelling words of vanity. They allure and tempt through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness.

While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought into bondage.

My beloved, knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ is how one escapes the pollutions of the world. In the latter days, the Lord Sanat Kumara comes to bind the tares sown among the wheat and burn them. They that are saved who having been entangled with the wickedness of the world, the latter end overcomes that which is from the beginning that is the worse manifested in them.

They shall come to their senses knowing they cannot live without God, they will lose all without Christ. They will go to their second death as the fallen angels have unless they learn and begin to walk as Christed beings with a threefold flame, the same mission as the one they came to earth, to be keeping it lit with Sanat Kumara.

For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment, the Word of Jesus Christ, the everlasting gospel of Sanat Kumara that will be delivered again and again unto them.

Jesus Christ Educating on the Godless in the Earth In the Second Letter of Peter

In this second letter of Peter, Jesus Christ educates Peter on the period of time when the wicked would not evolve in the earth before Sanat Kumara would come to bind the tares sown among the wheat. It is a time to have longsuffering.

One can become ensnared by the wicked in the ways of the world, that is all about one, and Jesus teaches on finding the Christ teachings. He teaches on the meaning of being saved by the Lord and Savior which is to live a life to balance karma, not to avoid karma. In the words of the apostle:

Count yourself therefore a partner, receive Jesus Christ as yourself. If the wicked has wronged you, or owes you, put that on the account of the Savior and Messiah.

Repay karma, albeit I do not say to you how you owe unto others even your own self besides.

Thus when the day is of the return of Sanat Kumara to burn up the tares sown among the wheat, balance karma you have made with the wicked and of the wrongs of this world. Find the Savior in the message of Jesus Christ. Walk in the way of the Christ and not lose the path that is unto glory of a life of eternity.
