John the apostle wrote down the Book of Revelation from Jesus on the isle that is called Patmos of the Word of God.

This book shows those who were servants of the churches what would be repeated in the life of the church as sign and symbol. These are everlasting cycles that repeat throughout the life of the Church of Jesus Christ. Some things would come to pass. Jesus sent and signified it by his servant John. The seven bands of angels would bring about the signs and testing of souls. These cycles would continue on and on and only go unto higher and higher spirals.

What is prophesied as end times is the beginning of a new cycle. The testimony of Jesus Christ is on to these cycles repeating that one learns of the seven churches. They are not only a meaning of the mastery of the seven chakras in man, they are events that outpicture on a cyclical basis that one recognizes the signs of the times and know how the church moves and what is the meaning of ones role from know what cycle one has entered and what to look for as sign of the next cycle about to begin at the end of a cycle.

The prophecies Jesus Christ gave have a natural progression that if one were to comprehend the time and cycle mystery, would know in which way to go. The Holy Spirit would speak to one of the next cycle move and guide one.

Those who deny the presence of Jesus Christ, do not know that this book helps them on a path of the Four Faces of Christ, the lineage of Sanat Kumara. By study of these cycles, one moves in sync with the tides and seasons and is able to find Sanat Kumara as the Lord who is the Lamb:

Who bare record of the Word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.
